

DEAR PARISH FAMILY,
I hope everyone had a blessed and happy Easter with family and friends. The liturgical season of Easter extends from Easter to Pentecost. Throughout this season we continue to celebrate Jesus' resurrection from the dead and our own resurrection to new life in Christ. As Christians, our challenge is to strive to become more like Christ both in our attitudes and our actions.

This week we ask your special prayers for all those who will be receiving First Communion at the 10:30 a.m. Mass next Sunday. Those who usually attend 10:30 Mass, please remember that the families and friends of the First Communicants will be here.

Please note the Stewardship box. Because of your generosity these last months, our year-to-date budget deficit for Sunday collection has been greatly reduced. Thank you!!!!

Many of you have noticed the problems with the bricks on the church. We are beginning to make contact with the appropriate people to help us decide what needs to happen to resolve the problem. Have a wonderful week.
fr. Bob
