

PENTECOST SUNDAY

DEAR PARISH FAMILY,

Today is Pentecost Sunday. In Mark’s Gospel, before Jesus ascended, he said to his Apostles, “Go out to the whole world; proclaim the Good News to all creation.” Because we share the Spirit of Jesus, each of us is called not only to be a disciple, or follower, of Jesus but also an apostle.

I would encourage your attendance at our Memorial Day Mass on Monday at 8:30 a.m. We will honor our friends and relatives who died in combat while serving our country.

Summerfest 2004 is this week. Please continue to do your best to sell your raffle tickets to family, friends, neighbors, and co-workers. Extra tickets are available at the Church doors. If you have not yet volunteered to help with the Festival, please do so. Also, encourage everyone you know to come to the Festival. Finally, please check out the Festival news column in this week’s bulletin. Besides being important fund raisers, parish festivals are great community builders. Thank you for all you have done and will do to make Summerfest 2004 a success.

Archbishop Daniel Buechlein will ordain Eric Augenstein and Brian Esarey to the Priesthood this Saturday, June 5, at 10:00 a.m. All are invited. In conjunction with the ordination, there will be a second collection next weekend to help cover the cost of educating our seminarians. Please be generous.

Have a great week.
fr. bob

IN OBSERVANCE OF MEMORIAL DAY, we would like to remember in a special way all of our friends and relatives who died in combat while serving our country. Please call Mary Martha Costello at 352-0704 with the name, branch of military service, and date and location of their death. These names will be read at the 8:30 a.m. Mass Monday, May 31st.

PRAYER LIST FOR THOSE SERVING OUR COUNTRY

A prayer list for parishioners, family members, and friends who are serving our country overseas is in the Adoration Chapel. Call Georgia at the Parish Center if you have any additions. We want to keep them in our prayers.

Our Sympathy

Helen Clager, 88, passed away Tuesday, May 18, and her Mass of Christian Burial was Friday, May 21. She is survived by Harold and Carol Clager, Jr., John and Darlene Clager, Judy and Manuel Corpuz, Carol Price, and Cathy Clager. We extend our condolences to family and friends at this loss.

BAPTISMS

On a happy note, we welcome these newly-baptized: Shannon Lee, daughter of Kelly (Devine) and Kenneth Curtis, and Aidan Liam, son of Debra (Capshaw) and Michael Burke.

SPECIAL COLLECTION FOR WEEKEND OF JUNE 5 - 6

The Archdiocesan Vocation Office receives funds each year from this second collection to cover the expenses of educating our seminarians. Thank you for your spiritual and financial support.

PARISH PHONE DIRECTORY

PENTECOST SUNDAY

We are in the process of updating the Annual Parish Guide book and Phone Directory for 2004/2005. This resource booklet contains parish information regarding organizations and activities as well as phone numbers of registered parishioners. This helpful directory will be mailed to your household in the fall.

If you are a registered parishioner, you will be listed in the directory. Please inform us of any recent changes in your information, so we can update the files prior to printing.

THANK YOU'S

We thank all of the ladies who assisted in preparing and serving 3 separate funeral lunches last week. Well over 200 people were served at the funeral luncheons during the week.

The family of Helen Clager would like to thank Fr. Vince, Fr. Bob, Georgia Impicchie, Tom Costello and the Funeral Luncheon Committee for all their kindness to Helen and the family. A special "thank you" for all of the cards and prayers received.

SUMMER VOLLEYBALL

Beginning Wednesday, June 2, there will be OPEN GYM for Little Flower parishioners entering grades 4 - 8 from 4 - 8 p.m. Bring a friend, water bottle, and a good attitude and come have fun playing and learning the game. This activity will be supervised by Sandy Clegg. Call her at 351-9432 with questions.
