

THE BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

DEAR PARISH FAMILY,

In Twelfth Night, William Shakespeare wrote, “I can no other answer make but thanks, And thanks, and ever thanks...” I want to thank everyone who helped make Summerfest 2004 a success. And it was a success. We were blessed with beautiful weather. Attendance was excellent, and I think a good time was had by all. By next week, we hope to be able to give you information concerning the financial success of Summerfest.

During the week before the Festival, I could feel a growing sense of excitement (or was it anxiety?) around the parish. What impressed me most was the large corps of volunteers before, during, and after the Festival. All ages of our parish were represented. Many volunteered in multiple areas. Many assumed major responsibilities. “I can no other answer make but thanks, And thanks, and ever thanks...”

To starting thanking individuals by name would be a very dangerous thing. Everyone’s contribution was important. However, one person must be thanked by name. As Director of Stewardship and Administration, Tom Costello has primary responsibility for the Festival. Although responsibility for the Festival may be part of his job description, he gives far more of time, talent, and energy to the Festival than we could reasonably ask any staff member to give. “I can no other answer make but thanks, And thanks, and ever thanks...”

Your participation in making Summerfest 2004 a success is a testament to the continuing life and vitality of Little Flower Parish. I hope you feel good about helping the parish raise much needed revenue for the parish, and I hope the Festival gave you an opportunity to experience community and make friends with your fellow parishioners.

Oops! In my column of May 30, I wrote, “In conjunction with the ordination, there will be a second collection next weekend to help cover the cost of educating our seminarians.” Last weekend, several people asked why we did not take up a second collection. Because of the Festival, we moved the collection to this Sunday. Envelopes were in your packets. Our general rule is not to take second collections. Therefore, these envelopes should be dropped in the regular collection. If you did not bring your envelope this week, please feel free to drop it in next Sunday’s collection.

Finally, since the Adventurousome Group meets this Wednesday, I want to take this opportunity to thank Shirley Brothers Mortuaries & Crematory for their very generous support of our Health and Senior Ministries.

Have a great week.
fr. Bob

Max is a 10-year-old beagle, and Maggie is a 10-year-old tabby cat. They are in search of new homes due to allergies in the family. Both are healthy, well-behaved, good with children and other animals, and have much life left in their years! If you are looking for a new family member, please call Georgia at the Parish Center.

ADVERTISING OPPORTUNITY

If you own or manage a business and would like to find out how to advertise in our book, please call Judi at the Parish Office- 357-8352. ### HEAVY STORM DAMAGE!

St. Elizabeth's Pregnancy and Adoption Services at 2500 Churchman Avenue, sustained substantial damage to the home for teenage mothers and their babies as well as to the administrative offices during the recent tornado. As a result the clients have been relocated temporarily. While any assistance is appreciated, financial donations would be the most beneficial as there is not storage room currently for clothing and other goods at this time. Please make checks payable to: St. Elizabeth's Pregnancy and Adoption Services – 200 Churchman Ave. 46203. For more information, please call 787-3412.

WEST NILE VIRUS -- This potentially dangerous illness is carried by mosquitoes, and in spite of our harsh winter, the mosquitoes seem to be thriving and hungry already this year. Find out more about West Nile, and how to keep yourself and your family safe this year, by picking up a brochure in the Health Ministry literature rack at the East Door of church.

Summerfest 2004

What a great weekend! Our weather was perfect and our crowds were great. A special thanks goes to all of our Festival volunteers, our booth chairpeople, and our Festival leadership team. Many volunteers (and their patient children) spent most of the weekend here and much time in preparation and clean-up. I personally was reminded of and renewed and encouraged by the dedication and enthusiasm of our volunteers. This Festival simply could not have happened without you. Thank You...

Tom
