

Dear Parish Family,

All of our Holy Week Liturgies were very beautiful. When everything is beautiful, we are tempted to forget how much hard work goes into making them beautiful. Therefore, I want to thank again all those who worked so hard to make our Holy Week Liturgies special. In a special way, I want to thank Teresa Eckrich and all the music ministers, the RCIA Team and Mary Martha Costello and the Environment Committee for all the time they spent to prepare these Liturgies.

The highpoint of our Holy Week Liturgies was the Easter Vigil at which we welcomed eighteen new members into our community. The following received the sacraments of baptism, confirmation, and first Eucharist: Emily Ajamie, Katie Ajamie, Sam Ajamie, Joe Ajamie, Dawn Burgin, Ellen Finlinson, Catherine Marshall, Lisa Marshall, Kristi Montgomery, Robert Mullis, Penii Plunkitt, and Sylvester Truitt. The following were received into the church and received the sacraments of confirmation and first Eucharist: Karen Ajamie, Ben Finlinson, Melinda Finlinson, Vickie Garcia, Katherine Jacobs, and Christie Pitts. We congratulate and welcome them. Finally, David Allstatt, a long-time member of the parish, received the Sacrament of Confirmation.

Thanks to the Athletic Committee who hosted the Easter Egg hunt on Holy Saturday.

I really want to remind everyone that we are now recycling paper. The paper bin is on the north end of the school near Bosart. Newspapers, magazines, and other paper can be placed in the bin. The only paper not allowed is cardboard and telephone books. Recycling will benefit both the environment and the parish.

Finally, please pray for the repose of the souls of Monsignor Francis R. Tuohy, a son of Little Flower parish and the former vicar general of the Archdiocese, who was buried this past Thursday from Christ the King Parish, and Rosie Clegg, a member of Little Flower parish and the mother of Father Tom Clegg and parishioners Paul and Steve Clegg, who was buried from Little Flower this past Wednesday. Also, please pray for their families.

Have a great week.
fr. bob
