

Dear Parish Family,

Tomorrow the Cardinal electors begin the conclave to elect our new Holy Father. Please pray for them that God's Spirit will lead them to elect the best successor to Pope John Paul II. Also, please pray for the Church. The Church faces new challenges in every age. One of the biggest challenges the Church faces today is re-evangelizing the Europe and North America.

Thanks to John Clegg and the Clegg family for directing donations to the Little Flower School Godparent Program. Through their generosity and the generosity of those who gave donations in Rosie Clegg's memory, we have received more than $2,000 to help families to afford a Catholic education at Little Flower for their children.

Next Sunday, April 24, we will celebrate First Communion with our second graders at the 10:30 a.m. Mass. Please pray for them this week. Also, please know that the 10:30 a.m. Mass next Sunday will be very full. Some of you who normally attend 10:30 a.m. Mass may want to choose another Mass next weekend.

Last Sunday I talked about the various meanings of the Eucharist in my homily: thanksgiving, sacrifice, presence, and communion. Next Sunday most of our First Communicants will be very excited. Part of their excitement will be born of their faith that they will really receive the Body and Blood of Christ when they receive their First Communion. Is our faith as adults as strong as their faith as children?

Several times in recent months, hosts (which I presume are consecrated) have been found in pews after Mass. Please watch for these. If you find one, please bring it to me or to one of the Eucharistic ministers.

Have a great week.

fr. bob
