Intentions of the week

Dear Parish Family,

Again, thanks to all who helped to make this year's Summerfest a success.

A few weeks ago, I invited you to send me your thoughts about what makes Little Flower special. Several parishioners said the parishioners of Little Flower make the parish special. The festival is testimony to the truth of their insight.

So many parishioners—young, old, and every age between—work so many hours in so many different capacities to make the festival a success. Before the festival starts, it seems like an almost impossible undertaking. During the festival, the volunteers make it look easy to the visitors. After the festival, everyone feels justifiable pride for their role in making the festival a success.

This year we had even more dramatic testimony that our parishioners are what make Little Flower special. On Friday morning, June 3, the opening day of the festival, John Clegg was found dead in his home. As you may remember, his beloved wife, Rosie, had died on Easter Sunday, March 27th. John had been looking forward to the festival. On Wednesday afternoon, John dropped off his raffle tickets and a full van of items for the rummage sale. Also, several members of his family had critical roles in the festival. All his family members worked the festival as they always do because that "was what he would have wanted." Special thanks to all the members of the Clegg family!!!

This Sunday is the Eucharistic procession and celebration at Victory Field to celebrate the Year of the Eucharist. Gates open at Victory Field at 2 p.m. The Procession with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament will be at 3 p.m. From 4 to 5 p.m., there will be entertainment and concessions. Many of you older parishioners may remember the Corpus Christi processions between Little Flower and Seccina in the early 1960's.

Have a great week.

Many thanks to Little Flower Parish for all their prayers and cards, during our illness. Also, many thanks to Fr. Bob, Harry and Rosemary Armour, Paul and Theresa Myers and John and Mary French. A special thanks to all the Little Flower and Seccina children for their prayers and cards.
Sincerely, Mike and Mary Anne Maio

Summerfest 2005

What a great weekend! God blessed us with good weather. More importantly, God has blessed us with great volunteers who really know how to pitch in and get the job done. A special thanks goes out to our booth chairpeople, and our festival leadership team. Many volunteers (and their patient children) spent most of the weekend here and much time in preparation and clean-up. It was great to see so many current and past parishioners. I am personally deeply grateful for the support of so many people in so many different ways. Thank you
Tom

Dear Parishioners of St. Therese Little Flower,

I write to thank you for your wonderful support of Scecina this past year. Because of your generosity, Scecina is able to offer a complete Catholic education to its deserving students. We strive to fulfill our mission of offering an integrated education, which develops the whole person in spirit, mind, and body. If we are successful, it is because of the generosity of our many supportive friends. May God continue to bless you for your prayers and support.

Devotedly yours in Christ,
Kevin H. Capersen, Ph.D.
