

Dear Parish Family,

Last Monday evening, our capital campaign leaders met for their first training. Within the next several days, these leaders have been charged with building their teams. Therefore, you may be asked to help with the campaign. If you are asked, please say yes. We need to keep before us the principal goal of the campaign—repairing our beautiful church.

As I listened to Andy Poole, our campaign consultant, it became very evident that the campaign is designed to include as many workers as possible so that every worker only has one thing to do. If you are asked to work on the campaign, you can be confident that you are being asked to make a very limited commitment.

On a sadder note, Fr. Dave’s time with us is drawing to a close. He will be returning to Maryknoll on Monday, September 12th. Tomorrow he will be moving out of the rectory and will spend this week with his sister. Next weekend, his final weekend, Fr. Dave will preach all the Masses except Sunday evening at 6 p.m.

I certainly have appreciated his help, and I know you have enjoyed having him here. If anyone would like to thank him with a card or note, you may give it to him directly, drop it in the collection, or send it to the office, and we will see that he receives it.

Finally, next Saturday evening, there will be a communal anointing of the sick at the 5 p.m. Mass. Important information is contained elsewhere in the bulletin.

Have a great week.

fr. bob

THE PARISH OFFICE WILL BE CLOSED ON Monday, September 5th in recognition of Labor Day.

News from the Archdiocesan Deacon Formation

The Archdiocesan Deacon Formation began in August 2004 with Twenty Five men. They have spent one weekend a month attending classes and praying together as well as serving in a pastoral setting throughout the year. All have chosen to continue in the formation. As they begin their second year, they will make a public declaration of their intention to become deacons in the “Rite of Admission to Candidacy for Holy Orders.” The Archbishop will preside at this Rite on Saturday, September 17th at 11 am, at Ss. Peter and Paul Cathedral in Indianapolis. After their public declaration, they will be known as “deacon candidates.” Please continue to support them by your prayers.

Support Our Local Crisis Pregnancy Centers!

The Respect Life Committee is forming a team of walkers for the Walk for Life, held on Sat. Oct 1st at the Canal (downtown Indianapolis). Register or make a donation online at www.cicpc.org. Please call Cindy Gallagher, Little Flower Team Captain at 352-1355 to register or for more information.

Little Flower Adult Volleyball News

Sign-ups for the Fall League will be Sept. 9th and 16th. All parishioners, neighboring parishes and friends, 19 years old and older are welcome. The cost for a season of fun is only $10.00. Open gym at 8:30 pm on Fridays. For more information please contact Jim Erlenbaugh 359-1124.

On Saturday, September 10 at the 5 pm Mass, we will celebrate a community Mass of Anointing of the Sick. Once called "Last Rites," anointing is no longer reserved for the dying, but is seen as a sacrament of inner healing. The Rite of Anointing suggests the following guidelines for those who wish to be anointed: "Great care should be taken to see that those of the faithful whose health is seriously impaired by sickness or old age receive this sacrament...A sick person may be anointed before surgery whenever a serious illness is the reason for the surgery. Elderly people may be anointed if they have become notably weakened even though no serious illness is present." (Rite 8, 10, &11) If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Fr. Bob or Georgia.

ATTENTION PARISH YOUTH
(eighth grade through twelfth grade)

Youth choir will meet again at 5pm on Sunday, September 4th and will sing at the 6pm Mass. The youth room will be open after Mass until 8:30 pm.

There will be a youth council meeting on Sunday, September 11th at Katie Lyon's house. If you want to help plan some youth activities for the coming months, please call Katie at 352-1129 and let her know you will come to the meeting.

It is once again time for Guide Book Publishing to update our annual Telephone Directory. When completed, these books will be delivered to you free of charge. Local businesses are being solicited to advertise in the book. If you own or manage a business and would like to find out about advertising in our annual directory, please call the Parish office at 357-8352. Thank You.

Neighborhood Appreciation Weiner Roast

All are invited to help us thank the neighborhood for its support of our festival and other events. Please join us on Saturday, September 17 from 12-4 (rain or shine) on the lawn to share a meal and meet our neighbors. Please bring your own lawn chairs or blankets and a dessert to share. Hot dogs, chips and lemonade will be provided along with all the fixins you'll need!

If you'd like to help us spread the word about the Weiner Roast, please meet in the Parish Center following the 10:30 mass on Sunday, September 11 to help us distribute flyers around the neighborhood. More hands makes for lighter work! Please join us if you can!

PICTORIAL DIRECTORY NEWS

The phone committee has been making as many calls as possible to schedule our last few days of pictures. If you have not yet scheduled an appointment, PLEASE consider doing so. It will only cost to you is a small amount of your time. If we work together we can have a very complete directory to serve our parish well for several years. If you would still like to schedule a time, please go to www.littleflowerparish.org or call the parish office between 9am and 1pm daily. Please consider making an appointment even if you have not yet been called or a volunteer called you and you declined.

CONFIRMATION PROGRAM

On Thursday, September 8th, there will be a meeting for all young adults (and their parents) who might be interested in preparing for the sacrament of Confirmation. Confirmation preparation is open to all students in grades 9 thru 12. The meeting will take place in the school cafeteria and will begin at 7:30 pm. Attendance at this meeting is essential for anyone who wants to prepare for Confirmation in the spring of 2006. Please call Tom at the parish center if you have questions.
