

Dear Parish Family,

I hope you all had a most blessed and joyful Easter. Our Liturgies will continue to celebrate Easter until Pentecost, which is June 4th this year. The most obvious sign of the Easter Season is that the Paschal Candle is lit during all Masses.

Thank you to all who participated in our Holy Week Liturgies. I am sorry that cars were damaged by the hail storm during the Good Friday Liturgy.

Also, you may have noticed that many windows on the north side of the parish office were broken by the storm. People often ask how contributions to the Home Improvement Fund are used. They are used for emergency repairs such as these. Of course, the parish has property damage insurance through the Archdiocese. However, the deductible is relatively high.

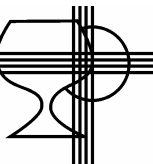

Finally, next Sunday our second graders will receive their First Communion at the 10:30 a.m. Mass. Please pray for them this week. Also, most of us have wonderful memories of our own First Communion. Because we only have twenty-five First Communicants this year, I would like to encourage you to come to the 10:30 a.m. Mass to celebrate with our second graders.

Have a wonderful week.

fr. bob
