

Dear Parish Family,

Today I want to share with you a Fathers' Day gift story.

Prior to Fathers' Day, I received a telephone call from a Bob Roll. He told me that his father, John Roll, had attended Little Flower Parish and School during the 1930's until his family moved to Cincinnati after he completed sixth grade. He had never been back to Indianapolis. He must have said something that made his son decide to bring him to Indianapolis as a Fathers' Day gift on Fathers' Day. He called to see if his father could tour the school.

They came to 10:30 a.m. Mass. I was expecting this one son to bring John and his wife, Dorothy. In fact, four of his children and two of his grandchildren came. I introduced him and his wife at the end of Mass, and the parish gave them a warm welcome. After Mass, I gave them a tour of the church and shared with them some of the history of the parish. Remember, when he moved to Cincinnati, Fr. Duffey, our first pastor, was still pastor. We then went over to school. He primarily wanted to see the old church, and then we visited one of his classrooms.

It was very obvious to me that he thoroughly enjoyed the visit and enjoyed having his children and grandchildren with him to share the day with him. What a thoughtful and creative Fathers' Day gift!

Have a great week.

fr. bob
