

Dear Parish Family,

As of the printing of the bulletin, Fr. Bob is on a well-deserved vacation.

His letter will return to the bulletin in one week .

On Saturday, July 24 at the 5 p.m. Mass, we will celebrate a community Mass of Anointing of the Sick. Once called "Last Rites," anointing is no longer reserved for the dying, but is seen as a sacrament of inner healing. The Rite of Anointing suggests the following guidelines for those who wish to be anointed: "Great care should be taken to see that those of the faithful whose health is seriously impaired by sickness or old age receive this sacrament...A sick person may be anointed before surgery whenever a serious illness is the reason for the surgery. Elderly people may be anointed if they have become notably weakened even though no serious illness is presents." (Rite 8, 10, & 11) Please contact Fr. Bob or Peggy Clegg if you have any questions.

Please remember in your thoughts and prayers our parishioners who are ill, homebound, or in a nursing home. If you get the chance, please send them a card or note! This week we especially want to remember Jo Valenti. Her address may be found in our Parish Directory.

Spiritual Adoption – week 16

I continue to amaze myself with how much I have grown in such a short time. I am beginning to build up fat deposits under my skin. I am almost 5 inches long and weigh about 4 oz. I hold my head and neck up much straighter now. I am pumping as much as 6 gallons of blood through my heart each day. My heart beats twice as fast as Mom's and can be heard with an external monitor. A good ultrasound tech can tell if I am a boy or a girl. I am busy sucking, swallowing, blinking and kicking. I even get the hiccups every once and a while. I breathe in and out small amounts of amniotic fluid to strengthen my lungs. Thanks again for all your prayers, keep up the good work.

COLTS FANS!

St. John Church has a limited number of reserved season parking spaces available for 2010 Colts games. Cost is $400 (includes pre-season and post season!). We are offering the parking spaces on a first-come-first served basis. Please call the office of St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church, 126 W. Georgia St., at 635-2021 ext. 24 and ask for information regarding reserved Colts parking passes.
