CONNECTED IN THE SPIRIT
PASTORAL PLANNING FOR THE ARCHDIOCESE OF INDIANAPOLIS

Listed below are the parish models that our cohort team will be considering for future implementation, as we recommend to the archdiocesan planning commission ways that our parishes can work together more effectively. Although it is far too early to see what the end result of this process will be, we wanted to provide some information about what options might be implemented throughout the Indianapolis deaneries.

MODEL ONE: LINKED PARISHES

Linked parishes happen when two or more parishes share a pastor. Linked parishes do as many things as possible cooperatively especially given that the pastor/administrator is striving to serve two or more separate parishes. Characteristics of linked parishes include:

1. The parishes remain distinct canonical entities and maintain separate finance councils.
2. The parishes are encouraged to establishing common committees where possible.
3. Linked parishes do many things cooperatively, such as programs and in-services.

MODEL TWO: MERGED PARISH

Merged or consolidated parishes create a new parish configuration which is able to provide many more activities and opportunities than the original parishes could have managed on their own.

The consolidation process allows parishes to:

1. Use priestly leadership more effectively so that more communities can celebrate the sacraments regularly and priests will have the energy to continue serving the community;
2. Join forces to form a larger, more vibrant worshipping community;
3. Reduce overhead, and use resources more effectively and efficiently.

When done sensitively and cooperatively, the merger of parishes will ordinarily create a more viable parish situation.

MODEL THREE: PARTNERSHIP-PARISHES

Parishes enter into partnerships with other parishes when:

1. They create joint programs in areas of catechesis, youth ministry, adult faith formation, outreach, evangelization, and other programs as appropriate.
2. When appropriate, they share staff to enhance the quality of ministry and practice good stewardship of resources.
3. They share in-services or retreats for parish pastoral councils, finance councils, or parish committees.

The key to successful partnership-parishes is an attitude of cooperation which results in finding opportunities for sharing resources to enhance the quality of ministry in each parish.

MODEL FOUR: IN SOLIDUM TEAM

Three or more parishes (often four or five parishes) are served by a team of priests, with one being named the moderator of the team. Lay ministers and deacons may work with the In Solidum Team to assist with the pastoral life of the parish.

The Adventurousome Group will meet on Wednesday, July 10, at 11:30am in the Parish Center. Mark your calendar and plan on coming for lunch and fellowship! There will be no Mass at 11a.m. due to Fr. Bob being out of town. Please call the Parish Center if you plan on attending.

Ladies Club Announcement

The Ladies Club could use your help. Does your summer vacation include a stay at a hotel or motel? The Ladies Club is in need of new soaps, shampoo's, etc. from your stay to replenish our supply. Here's why! In November we will be stuffing tube socks with these small items and donating them to the downtown Cathedral soup kitchen for the poor. The Ladies Club will have a basket in the vestibule of church for your donations. Thank you for helping us out.

NATIONAL CATHOLIC YOUTH CONFERENCE!

PLEASE READ. This is going to be a great experience, but you must register quickly. If you will be in high school in the fall, you are eligible to go. We are hoping for quite a few kids from Little Flower. I am planning to attend also.....Tom

East Deanery Youth Ministry is accepting registrations for high school students to attend the National Catholic Youth Conference in Indianapolis this November 21-23. This is a conference that gathers 25,000 Catholic youth from all over the country for a weekend of faith experience and fun. For more information and to register, go to edcym.blogspot.com or call/e-mail Gabby Bibeau, the East Deanery Youth Minister, at 353-9404 ext. 7 or gbibeau@holyspirit.cc.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS

We will be welcoming our high school and college students in a special way to 6 p.m. Mass on Sunday August 4. There will be a blessing for them and their upcoming school year during Mass. Following Mass, we will offer a dinner for them and their families in the social hall. Please plan to join us! Watch for further details.

By the time you are reading this bulletin, or very soon thereafter, you will notice the new St. Therese Legacy Society recognition wall in the gathering area of church by the choir loft door. You will hear much more about the Legacy Society over the next couple of months, as we will be preparing and mailing information to parishioners. This wall will recognize all those who have made planned estate gifts to the parish or school through their wills. Initially, there are three things that are important to note.

- We have gone back to the year 2000 and have initially included the names we have found in our records of people who have remembered the parish in their wills. If there are any omissions, they are accidental and we will make corrections or additions as necessary.
- A Planned Gift is not the same as a Memorial Gift. We are currently planning a separate memorial for those situations when an individual has died and gifts to the church or school were requested in their honor or in lieu of flowers.
- Information on becoming a member of the St. Therese Legacy Society will be distributed over the next couple of months.
