BULLETIN DEADLINE

Articles for the bulletin must be submitted in writing to the Parish center or by email to lgibbons@littleflowerparish.org by noon on Monday.

Dear Parish Family,

We want to welcome all of our alumni and guests who are here to celebrate the 5:00 p.m. Mass with us and attend the annual All-School Reunion. We believe that Little Flower is a family. We equally believe that anyone who has ever been part of Little Flower Parish or Little Flower School remains part of our family. Special thanks to Fr. Jim Farrell '63, my classmate, for accepting my invitation to preach at the Reunion Mass.

Thanks to all who contributed for this year's Halloween Party and all worked to make this year's Halloween Party a success. Our Halloween Party is not only for our parishioners and our school students. It is for all the children in the neighborhood. As I mentioned at Mass last Sunday, the Halloween Party is one way in which we reach out to the neighborhood by providing a safe, secure, and enjoyable environment to celebrate Halloween. A few weeks ago, I quoted Fr. Ron Rolheiser who wrote, "...we do not lack for literature, moral rhetoric, or good analysis on social justice. But there is, in fact, very, very little being done." I would suggest this community outreach, as limited as it, is putting social justice into practice.

You may remember that Pope Benedict XVI designated October 11, 2012 to November 24, 2013 as a Year of Faith. As part of the year of faith, the Archdiocese asked each parish to hold a town hall meeting sometime before Lent to surface and discuss "10 Things We Want You to Know About the Catholic Faith." We held ours on February 11. Each parish was then asked to send seven representatives to a deanery meeting with a similar format and goal. Eventually each deanery was asked to send seven representatives to an Archdiocesan gathering still focused on a discussion of "10 Things We Want You to Know About the Catholic Faith."

Input from all parish, deanery and Archdiocesan gatherings was then compiled to create a pastoral resource—"Catholic Faith: 10 Things We Want You to Know"—that is designed to be a practical tool for our local evangelization efforts. On Tuesday, I presented copies to our RCIA. A copy is included in today's bulletin. I hope you will take the time to read it. It is only one page long, but it is a good summary of what we Catholics should want to know about ourselves and what we should want others to know about us. Thanks to all who participated at any stage of the process.

Have a wonderful week.

ARCHDIOCESE OF INDIANAPOLIS

The Church in Central and Southern Indiana

Catholic Faith

10 Things We Want You to Know

We are Catholics in southern and central Indiana. We love God and strive to be good neighbors. Here are 10 things we'd like you—our friends, neighbors and relatives—to know about our Faith.

Knowing about the Catholic faith is one thing; experiencing it is another. Feel free to contact a Catholic parish near you. We love our Faith, we're confident that a Catholic life is a beautiful life, and we'd love to have you visit us!

Information about Catholic parishes in southern and central Indiana is at the webpage archindy.org (Parishes) or just call 1 800 382-9836 ext. 1431.

1 We're Christian...

"Are you Christian or are you Catholic?" We hear that a lot, and our answer is—yes! Yes we're Catholic and yes we're Christian. Jesus is the center of our lives and our Catholic faith calls us to a personal relationship with Him as well as membership in His Body, the Church.

2 We love the Bible...

The Catholic Church is Bible-based! We proclaim Sacred Scripture at daily Mass and even more on Sundays. The prayers of the Mass and many of our personal prayers use the words of the Bible. Holy Scripture is incorporated with our lifelong religious education.

3 A lot of good things get done when we work in faith...

Catholics feed more people, clothe more people, shelter more people, educate more people and provide medical care for more people than all religious groups on earth. It's not a contest. We encounter Jesus when we serve with fellow Christians and all people of good will.

4 We don't always live up to our high calling...

We're supposed to be friendly, welcoming and joyful. But we don't bat a thousand in those areas. If you've ever visited a Catholic parish and felt unwelcome, please come back. Through prayer and service of others we try to show the love of Christ in all we do.

5 Although we don't worship her, we think that the Mother of Jesus—Mary—is very special...

When you have a good friend, chances are you know her or his mother and probably appreciate her role in helping your friend be the person that she or he is. The Person of Jesus has a mom. In the same way you'd ask a family member to pray for you, we ask the Blessed Virgin Mary to pray for us and all who seek her Son, our Lord.

6 Our authority structure helps us offer clear and consistent teaching...

Jesus promised that the Holy Spirit would keep His Church free from error in her doctrinal and moral teaching. That's a tall order, but Jesus keeps His promises and calls the successors to the Apostles—our bishops throughout the world—to teach in His name with authority and love.

7 We believe that one way Jesus keeps His promise to be with us is through the 7 Sacraments...

We can see, touch, taste and smell as well as hear; God made us that way! In the Sacraments we personally experience the presence of Jesus in ways that complement our encounter with Him in the Bible. In Word and Sacrament Jesus has a personal relationship with us as our Savior.

8 Our worship is unique in a good way...

God loves us too much to leave us guessing about how He wants to be worshipped. While Jesus died and rose just once to save us all from sin and death, the Mass allows us to be present for that most pleasing sacrifice, and to please our heavenly Father by our worship. Prayer services are great. Talks can inspire. But the Mass is how we fulfill Jesus' command to "Do this in memory of me."

9 We want all people of good will to work with us so that together we can build a civilization of love...

A person of good will knows that some behaviors are better than others and wants to work with all people not based on opinions about right and wrong but on truly discerning the best courses of action for individuals and communities. People of good will come in all shapes, sizes, colors and faiths. We love and respect you. Let's work together to know and do God's will.

10 We would love to have you visit us—and maybe even stay a while...

"My house is your house!" This phrase expresses the welcoming, joyful attitude that we aspire to in all our parishes. Catholic churches are houses of worship where visitors often find a quiet place to pray. At Mass when the community worships—and it isn't quiet—booklets at every seat usually explain what to do at various points in the experience, especially when it's time for Holy Communion. Please stop by and visit; we'd love to see you.
