Their sacrifices leave their religious communities without adequate savings for retirement and eldercare. Your gift to the Retirement Fund for Religious collection helps provide prescriptions medications, nursing care and more. Please give to those who have given a lifetime. Please use your envelope provided in the regular packet and place it in the regular collection next weekend. (www.retiredreligious.org)

The season starts this month and continues until the end of February. If you are interested please contact, Sarah Stevenson at 317.946.3194 or sjstevenson@prodigy.net.

St Vincent Hospital, in conjunction with the Archdiocese of Indianapolis Health Ministry, will be sponsoring The Empty Chair Workshop: Coping with Grief and the Holidays on December 7, 2015, from 6:30-8:30 p.m. at the Catholic Center, 1400 N Meridian Street. In Jewish faith traditions, an Empty Chair and place is set at the family table to signify the absence of one honored and loved. It reminds us not only of the loss, but also encourages us to embrace the significance and love the absent loved one brought to our lives. When we have experienced a recent loss, the holiday can be painful and emotionally overwhelming. Learn how to survive and get through a difficult time by hearing from others and sharing your experience. Registration is not needed and there is no cost to attend. For more information contact Joni LeBeau, RN FCN, Coordinator of Health Ministry, 236-1475.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Soon our parishes will be conducting the Retirement Fund for Religious collection. This annual appeal benefits some 33,000 senior Catholic Sisters, Brothers and religious order priests, -- women and men who have consecrated their lives to serving God and the Church.

During this Year of Consecrated Life, Pope Francis calls on the faithful to recognize the special witness that consecrated women and men offer our Church and the world. In a letter marking the inauguration of this special year, he wrote, "I ask the whole Christian people to be increasingly aware of the gift which is the presence of our many consecrated men and women." He goes on to note the spiritual influence that religious such as Saint Benedict and Saint Teresa of Avila continue to have on our Church and faith today.

As we reflect on the saints of the past, many of us may also recall women and men religious whom we would consider saints in our day. With gratitude, we remember the Sister who patiently helped us learn our multiplication tables or the Brother who coached our high school team, teaching us that faith must be lived out even on the basketball court.

Today, many of these Sisters, Brothers and religious order priests, these saints in our midst, are elderly. While some continue to volunteer ministry, others are frail and need care. Most worked for years for small stipends, leaving their religious communities without adequate savings to meet growing needs of retirement and eldercare.

So I ask you to join with Pope Francis in acknowledging the gift of consecrated life. Please pray for God's blessing on all religious and give generously to the Retirement Fund for Religious.

Sincerely yours in Christ the Redeemer,
