Dear Parish Family,

Today we celebrate the Second Sunday of Easter.

Traditionally the Second Sunday of Easter was called Dominica in Albis or Low Sunday. Dominica in Albis means Sunday in White. On Holy Saturday, after the Elect are baptized, they are clothed in a white garment. In the early Church, they wore the white garment for a week. On the Sunday after Easter, they went back to wearing regular clothes. The Second Sunday of Easter was also the Octave Day of Easter. Easter Sunday was High Sunday, and its Octave Day was Low Sunday.

Today the Second Sunday of Easter is also called the Sunday of Divine Mercy. Both in the pre-Vatican II Liturgy and today's Liturgy the Gospel for this Sunday is the Gospel of institution of the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

During the Extraordinary Jubilee of Mercy, Pope Francis has reminded us that God is mercy. In his Good Friday homily, Capuchin Father Raniero Cantalamessa, preacher of the Pontifical Household, elaborated on this:

The Year of Mercy is a golden opportunity to restore the true image of the biblical God who not only has mercy but is mercy....

This bold assertion is based on the fact that "God is love" (1 Jn 4:8, 16). It is only in the Trinity, however, that God is love without being mercy....

It is when God creates the world and free human beings in it that love ceases for God to be nature and becomes grace. This love is a free concession; it is hesed, grace and mercy. The sin of human beings does not change the nature of this love but causes it to make a qualitative leap: mercy as a gift now becomes mercy as forgiveness.

It seemed to me that our Holy Week and Easter Liturgies could not have been more beautiful. I only wish more people, both parishioners and visitors, had attended. As I mentioned in my homily last Sunday, on Easter we celebrate the greatest event in human history: Jesus' resurrection from the dead. Special thanks to the Parish Life Commission who hosted the Soup and Bread dinner before the Holy Thursday Liturgy. Special thanks to Anna Marie Guttierrez who prepared the delicious soup.

Also, special thanks to Mrs. Slaton and the Little Flower 8th Grade Class who stayed "after school" on Good Friday to lead the Living Stations for the parish at 1:00 p.m. On Good Friday, school is dismissed at 11:00 a.m. They also performed the Living Stations for the school at 8:30 a.m. Also, thanks to Tom Costello for playing the Stations and to the four 7th graders who assisted the 8th graders.

Finally, please pray for the men who are participating in Christ Renews His Parish this weekend and for the team who are presenting the weekend.

Have a wonderful week.

fr. bob
