Little Flower Church Mission Statement

Little Flower Church (St. Therese of the Infant Jesus) is a vibrant faith community in the Roman Catholic Tradition, striving to live out the Gospel values of Jesus Christ. Centered in the Eucharist, we are called by God to look beyond ourselves to respond compassionately to the needs of others.

LAUDATO SI'

ENCYCLICAL LETTER OF THE HOLY FATHER FRANCIS

If the simple fact of being human moves people to care for the environment of which they are a part, Christians in their turn "realize that their responsibility within creation, and their duty towards nature and the Creator, are an essential part of their faith."

BULLETIN DEADLINE

Articles for the bulletin must be submitted in writing to the Parish center or by email to lgibbons@littleflowerparish.org by noon on Monday.

Dear Parish Family,

After a week of rain, we were blessed with ideal weather for our parish picnic last Sunday. The sun was shining, and the temperature was neither too hot nor too cold. There was plenty of food for everyone.

I want to thank the members of the Parish Life Commission, the Men's Club, and anyone else who pitched in and helped with set up and clean up. They all worked very hard. Thanks to Sandy Clegg for organizing the kickball game and to Karen Lientz for calling Bingo. Special thanks to the 8th graders who helped with setting up the water slide, assisting the younger children using the slide, and cleaning up after the picnic. Extra special thanks to Teresa Eckrich, Mary Helen Eckrich, and Denise Stone for manning the water slide and for suggesting this great addition to our picnic!

Over my 41 years as a priest, I have had to deal with the pain of many parents whose adult children no longer actively practice their faith or have left the Catholic Church. The Little Flower evangelization committee Invite is sponsoring a four-week seminar "RETURN-How to Draw your Child Back to the Church" based on the book by Brandon Vogt. If your children no longer actively practice their faith or have left the Catholic Church, this seminar is for you. Please check out the detailed announcement elsewhere in the bulletin.

The Rite of Christian Initiation (RCIA) begins on Tuesday, September 6, at 7 p.m. in the Parish Center. If you would like us to invite someone, please let us know by contacting Lisa Gibbons at the Parish Center by telephone or e-mail (lgibbons@littleflowerparish.org).

Tom and Mary Martha Costello were married on September 11, 1976 at Our Lady of Lourdes. Next Sunday, September 4, they will celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary at the 10:30 a.m. Mass. Fr. Jim Farrell, Tom's first cousin, will be the celebrant and homilist.

As most of you know, Tom is a son of Little Flower Parish and has been a member of the parish his entire life. Both Tom and Mary Martha have been extremely generous to Little Flower. Since 2000, Tom has been Director of Stewardship and Development. He puts in incredible hours in that role and in volunteer service to Little Flower. Even before he began working here, he was an active volunteer. Also, he has been part of our music ministry as an organist, pianist, cantor, and choir member since approximately 1985. Mary Martha is currently the chairperson of the Art & Environment Committee and the Festival Silent Auction Committee. She previously served as chairperson of the Lenten Fish Frys. She also serves as a Eucharistic Minister.

I invite and encourage you to attend their anniversary Mass. Please pray that God will bless them with good health and many more happy years of marriage.

Have a wonderful week.

"RETURN"

- You're concerned about your child. He's stopped going to Mass. Maybe he's found another religion. Perhaps he no longer believes in God. Whatever the case, you want your child to return to the Church
- But the problem is he doesn't seem interested. He tunes you out, he ignores your pleas, and he doesn't want to discuss religion.
- You would do anything to bring him back, but you have no idea where to begin. You've tried talking. You've tried nagging. You've tried praying. Nothing seems to work.
- The reality is, you need help. You need a proven game plan.
- You need RETURN.

The Little Flower Invite Committee is sponsoring a four week seminar "RETURN-How to Draw your Child Back to the Church" based on the book by Brandon Vogt. The series will begin September 29 from 6:30-8:00 p.m. in the St. Patrick Room.

My Journey through RCIA

Dear Parish Family,

I participated in RCIA in 2015-2016. To be honest I never thought I would convert. My in-laws were Catholic and when my twins were born in 2012 they asked if I would have them baptized. My husband said he would like for our children to be Catholic and I didn't object. Then when my son was born in 2015 he had some health issues and I found myself back at Little Flower having him baptized. I decided to check out the classes because I wanted to know more about the religion we had chosen for our children. I asked my husband to come as well because as I teasingly told him he was the worst Catholic "translator" I could ask for.

I went the first night nervous and not knowing what to expect. There were two things that really struck a cord with me. First, one of the RCIA volunteers explained that RCIA is similar to a courtship. That it starts out with you just getting to know the faith like a coffee date before making any commitments. He said that even though there was a timeline to the class they weren't going to push conversion on anyone and if we weren't comfortable we could go over and over until we were confident in the decision or end the class any time. Secondly, there was an anonymous question box where we could ask any questions without fear of judgement. Throughout the year I was always impressed by the patience and thoroughness Father Bob used to answer the questions.

After class my husband and I would talk about our faith and how to practice what we were learning in our lives. Taking the journey through RCIA together strengthened our relationship and gave us more to talk about than just the day to day tasks of parenting. Each week, my mom would ask what I had learned the night before. At first I thought it was my babysitter checking to make sure my husband and I were where we said we were going, but I soon realized she enjoyed my excited retelling of the previous night's lesson.

Before I knew it those classes were the highlight of my week. I had three small children at home, so sure the adult time was refreshing and the camaraderie of the group infectious but it wasn't just that. It was the joy of learning the faith. Yes I had heard about Catholicism, but there is a difference between hearing about it from non-Catholics and learning the religion from believers. I felt inspired by the passion of the speakers, challenged by the small group discussions and humbled by the historic traditions of the faith. As I came to understand the reasons and history behind the traditions I couldn't help, but embrace Catholicism. Surprising myself I ended up converting; officially entering the Catholic faith at the Easter vigil.

Sincerely,

Mandie, RCIA Class of 2016
