Dear Parish Family,

We want to congratulate Archbishop Tobin on his appointment as Archbishop of Newark, New Jersey. The Archdiocese of Newark has 1,459,000 Catholics, 730 priests, 162 permanent deacons, and 1,092 religious. At the same time, I think all of us are sad to see him go. As someone commented to me, he seemed real or genuine.

This week I will be on retreat from Monday evening until Thursday afternoon. Therefore, there will a Communion Service each evening at 5:30 p.m.

Thank you to all those who worked so hard to make this year's All-Class Reunion last weekend special. Special thanks to Tom Costello who puts in countless hours every year to make this event happen. Also, thanks to our parish and school staff, our adult choir and student liturgical choir, Carol Collins Routh, Class of 1967, and to all those who attended. Also, every year the management and staff of the Indianapolis Marriott East do an outstanding job with our social and dinner.

Feedback from alumni, especially the honorees and their families, suggests that the evening could not have gone better. The food was delicious. However, I think the alumni most enjoy the opportunity to visit with former classmates and friends. The highlight of the evening, of course, was the presentation of awards.

Each year the $1,000 Bob Kiley Scholarship is awarded to an outstanding 8th grader who is an altar server. This year award winner was Allison Minton. Congratulations to her and her parents.

Also, congratulations to six outstanding alumni who were added to our Wall of Honor. Three were graduates of Scecina Memorial High School, two were graduates of Brebeuf High School, and one was a graduate of Cathedral High School. Three also graduated from a Catholic college or university.

Jane Bell, Class of 1956, continues to be an active parishioner of Little Flower, living in the house in which she grew up. Jane worked as a nurse her entire adult life, including working at St. Francis Hospital for 42 years in intensive care, coronary care, and the cardiac cath lab. Jane has also helped countless people in little, unrecognized ways. Jane was honored for an entire adult life devoted to nursing but also to humble, unrecognized service and care to others.

Erich Bredl graduated from Little Flower in 1954, Cathedral High School in 1958, and University of Notre Dame in 1962, receiving a Bachelor of Science in Chemical Engineering.

In November 1978, he founded Intrepid Industries. At the end of October, 2015, Intrepid was sold to the employees by means of an Employee Stock Ownership Plan (ESOP). Erich is most proud that Intrepid has shared its success with its employees. Erich was honored for witnessing the principles of Catholic Social teaching while running a successful business.

Mike Coffey, Class of 1965, graduated from Little Flower, Brebeuf High School, and Xavier University in Cincinnati with a degree in economics. Today he is owner of a company that provides online software services for schools and nonprofit organizations. Mike generously shares his time, talent, and treasure with St. Pius X parish and school and with CYO. Mike was honored for his outstanding witness to his Catholic faith and for his generosity in sharing his time, talent, and treasure with his parish and CYO.

This was the first time we have honored a brother and sister at the same reunion. Jane Coffey Elliott, graduated from Little Flower in 1973, graduated from Brebeuf in 1977, and graduated from Butler University in 1981. Just as Jane played CYO sports, participated in Science Fairs, and attended CYO Camp Rancho Framasa, so did her four children. Jane has coached, served on the CYO Board of Directors, and currently serves as CYO's Development Director. Jane was honored for her outstanding witness to her Catholic faith and to Catholic family values and for her service to the young people of the Archdiocese of Indianapolis through her work at CYO.

Fr. Joseph B. Moriarty, Class of 1981, was ordained a priest of the Archdiocese of Indianapolis on June 5, 1993. Fr. Joe graduated from Little Flower School, Scecina Memorial High School, St. Meinrad College, Mundelein Seminary, and Creighton University. Fr. Joe has spent 18 of his 23 years as a priest in vocation work both in Archdiocese and at St. Meinrad. He currently serves as Rector of Bishop Simon Bruté College Seminary and Chaplain at Marian University. Fr. Joe was honored for his ministry promoting vocations to the priesthood and forming candidates for the priesthood.

Dr. Kathy Shaver Steele, graduated from Little Flower School in 1962 and Scecina Memorial High School in 1966. She attended Purdue University for her Bachelor of Arts, Master of Science, Doctor of Philosophy, Gifted Endorsement, and Superintendent Certification. For 43 years, she worked in the Crawfordsville Community School Corporation as an elementary teacher, Gifted and Talented Coordinator, Curriculum Coordinator, and Superintendent. Kathy has also taught graduate courses at Purdue University and at IUPUI. She is the author of two books, numerous articles, speeches, and grants. Dr. Kathy Shaver Steele was honored as an outstanding educator.

Have a wonderful week.

fr. bob

Please remember our parishioners who are ill, homebound, or in a nursing home in your thoughts and prayers. If you get a chance please send them a card or a note! This week we especially want to remember:

We remember our former parishioner, Scott McGrath, who died on October 26 and whose memorial service was held on November 2 at Oakley

Hammond. We also remember our parishioner, Helen Lime, who passed away on October 31 and whose funeral liturgy was celebrated here on November 8th. The Liturgy Commission is looking for families to help with the lighting of our Advent wreath at the beginning of each Mass this Advent season beginning the weekend of November 26/27.
