Dear Parish Family,

Thank you to the sixteen 2nd graders who participated in the Solemn Closing of the Little Flower Novena last Saturday evening at the 5:00 p.m. Mass by dropping rose petals during the opening procession. It is one of our traditions that those preparing for First Communion participate in the Solemn Closing of the Novena. Thank you to all the families who participated.

Many thanks to all involved with the Parish Appreciation Dinner last weekend. The Steer-In chicken and potatoes were delicious, as was the rest of the meal, which was cooked by volunteers. Big thank you to the Stewardship Commission—Jeanine Adkins, Peggy Clegg, Susan Spilly-Lee, Elizabeth Mann, and Jennifer Nevins for their hard work in planning and putting the event together. Special thanks to Frank Lee, who helped with much of the cooking, Paula Ramos, who helped with serving, and Mary Martha Costello, who coordinated the ordering and delivery of the mums. Thank you to the numerous parishioners who assisted with cleaning up. Finally, thank you to all who attended. This dinner was to thank you for your gifts of time, talent, and treasure. Little Flower Parish is great because of its great people.

This Wednesday, October 11, is the feast of Pope St. John XXIII. Pope John XXIII was elected Pope on October 20, 1958. At the time of his election, he was almost seventy-seven years old. Because of his age, he was expected to be a transitional Pope. However, he stunned the Church and the world when he announced in 1959 that he would convoke an ecumenical council, which became known as the Second Vatican Council. The First Session of the Council opened on October 11, 1962. Pope John XXIII died on June 3, 1963.

The Second Vatican Council was an example of God's providence at work. Msgr. Bosler told me that Pope Pius XII had considered calling an ecumenical council but decided against it. According to Msgr. Bosler, the Church was not ready for a council during the time of Pope Pius XII. However, Pope John XXIII, whom everyone expected to be a transitional Pope because of his age, called for an ecumenical council approximately three months after his election. That Pius XII did not call for a council and John XXIII did is a sign of God's providence. As we heard just a few weeks ago in a reading from the Prophet Isaiah, "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways, says the LORD."

Last month, when I last reported on the statues, three of the statues had been "adopted"—the Blessed Mother, Saint Joseph, and St. Therese. Since then, St. Anthony has been "adopted." If anyone would like to adopt the Sacred Heart, please contact me. The cost of restoring each statue is $3,300.

Have a wonderful week.

fr. bob

Our parish Liturgy Commission is seeking to increase its membership. The work of the commission involves all liturgical celebrations, as well as special seasons and feasts. The commission is responsible for determining, communicating, and implementing any liturgical changes for our parish. Members should have a love of good liturgy and have some knowledge about it, or be willing to learn over time. If you think you might be interested, please email tom@littleflowerparish.org or call Tom at 317-357-8352, ext 27. Thanks for your consideration.

Catholic Cemeteries

One of the works of mercy of the church is burying the dead and this is never easy to discuss. Mark Hanley, a representative from Catholic Cemeteries, Calvary, Holy Cross/St. Joseph, Our Lady of Peace, will be here to discuss this important topic and answer any of your questions. This will take place Wednesday, October 11 at 7:00 p.m., in the Parish Center. Please come and find out more about how this works and what it means for your family. If you have any questions please contact Peggy Clegg at pclegg@littleflowerparish.org or at 317-357-8352.

SAVE THE DATE: Believe it or not, Halloween is right around the corner! Your help is needed in order to make the parish Halloween Bash a success. Donations of individually wrapped candy treats are requested. Please leave your donation at the parish center, at school, or in the collection containers that will be available at the church doors beginning next weekend. Help will also be needed the night of the event, October 31, from 6-8 p.m. We need people who are willing to pass out candy, work one of the game booths, or work in the kitchen serving food. Please contact Peggy Clegg at pclegg@littleflowerparish.org or 317-357-8352 x 32 if you are able to help.
