If you prefer to have your child's baptism scheduled during Mass, you may request this at the time you return the baptism information form. Requests for the date and time specified will be honored to the extent possible. Parents who have not yet received pre-baptismal instruction are required to attend a Baptismal Preparation Class that is held every other month. ### BULLETIN DEADLINE

Articles for the bulletin must be submitted in writing to the Parish center or by email to lgibbons@littleflowerparish.org by noon on Monday.

Dear Parish Family,

At the Saturday 5:00 p.m. Mass, we welcome Father Larry Richardt as celebrant and homilist. Fr. Larry is a retired priest of the Archdiocese. He will be taking my place as I have a wedding in another parish on Saturday.

This Monday, September 2, is Labor Day, the traditional holiday end of summer. Our Labor Day Mass will be at 9:00 a.m. There will be no 5:30 p.m. Communion Service. Also, both the parish office and school will be closed.

I would encourage all those who are able to attend Mass on Monday. Labor Day celebrates the contribution of workers to the common good of our society and the prosperity our country enjoys. As we thank God for the economic blessings we enjoy, we need to pray for the health and safety of all workers, for those who are unemployed or under-employed, and for equal opportunity for all.

This year the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) will begin Tuesday, September 10, from 7:00 to 8:30 p.m. in the Parish Center. I would encourage anyone who would like to learn more about the Catholic faith to join us on Tuesday evening. Also, all of us are called to share the Good News of Jesus with others. It is not too late to invite someone to attend RCIA!

Last year our parishioner Chris Arvin began the four-year process of education and formation which will lead to his ordination to the permanent diaconate. Having completed his aspirant year of formation, he will be accepted as a candidate by Archbishop Thompson at 10:30 a.m. on Saturday, September 21, at the Cathedral. Next Saturday at the 5:00 p.m. Mass we will celebrate the Rite of Sending to Declare Candidacy for Ordination as a Deacon.

Our Parish Picnic last Sunday was wonderful. The weather was perfect, not too hot, and the food was delicious! Everyone enjoyed their time together, especially those who played kickball, bingo, or used the water slide. Special thanks to the members of the Parish Life Commission who organized the picnic and to all those who helped with set up and/or clean up and/or brought food for the event! Many hands made for light work!!!

Last Sunday at the 10:30 a.m. Mass we welcomed members of the Hazel Elizabeth Gallagher Holdaway family who were here for the recognition of the 2018-2019 winners of the Hazel Elizabeth Gallagher Holdaway Service Awards. Hazel Holdaway, a convert to Catholicism, raised her five children in Little Flower. All five children were baptized by Fr. Charles Duffey, the founding pastor of Little Flower. All five attended Little Flower School.

Two students are recognized each semester. The 2018-2019 winners were Sydney Deiwert, Gavin Turner, Maia Dulworth, and Emily Aquilar Mariscal. They were presented with a certificate of recognition, and their names will be inscribed on a permanent plaque in school. Also, the students received a monetary award that was given as a credit to the student's tuition account.

This weekend we are making available to you copies of Bishop Robert Barron's book Letter to a Suffering Church: A Bishop Speaks on the Sexual Abuse Crisis. Bishop Barron created the very popular DVD series Catholicism: A Journey to the Heart of the Faith. Bishop Barron wrote this book for his "fellow Catholics who feel, understandably, demoralized, scandalized, angry beyond words, and ready to quit." He wrote this book to encourage Catholics to stay and fight for themselves, their families, and those who were abused.

Have a wonderful week.

Fr. Bob
