NEW MASS SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED

In a letter to the Little Flower parish family dated September 17, 2019, Fr. Bob announced that he, the Liturgy Commission and the Parish Pastoral Council had agreed to a July proposal to combine the Sunday 8:30 and 10:30 Masses into a new 9:30 a.m. Sunday Mass.

Fr. Bob pointed out that the feedback he received during open discussion of the plan was extremely positive. He wrote: "While I think it is safe to say that most people would prefer no change at all, the overwhelming majority who responded supported the outlined plan. Be assured that the staff and I will be working on details associated with this change. We will still provide coffee and donuts, religious education and children's liturgy. We will be working with the chair people of these ministries to determine the best course of action. We will also be surveying all lectors, servers and Eucharist Ministers to determine their scheduling preferences.

"There is always a risk of alienating parishioners with a change in Mass schedule. Change is always difficult. We all have our routines, and many of us have Sunday routines that are tied to what Mass we attend. Because attendance is already a challenge, I hesitate to make any change that could alienate those who currently attend Mass and are parishioners here. I once again ask that you approach this necessary change with as much flexibility and positivity as possible. I am grateful for all the positivity I have already seen expressed by your initial feedback.

"I am relying heavily that your ownership of our parish and the value you place on being a Little Flower parishioner will outweigh any inconvenience that this Mass schedule change will cause.

"Thank you in advance for your flexibility and positive attitude and for your many sacrifices to make Little Flower parish the best parish possible."

Effective the weekend of Nov 30/Dec 1, the new Mass schedule is:

Saturday 5:00 p.m.

Sunday 9:30 a.m.

Sunday 6:00 p.m.

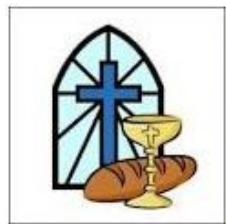

Also effective December 1:

Coffee and donuts will follow the 9:30 a.m. Mass

Children's Liturgy will be during the 9:30 a.m. Mass

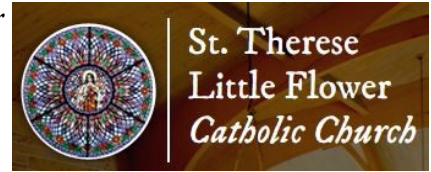

Sunday religious education will be from 10:30 a.m. until 11:25 a.m.

The regular time for baptisms will be after the 9:30 a.m. Mass

This little guy is intense about receiving his blessing from Fr. Bob during the annual pet blessing on October 5. Twelve families brought their fur babies and most of the animals were well behaved.

The annual LF School walkathon was again held at Scecina.

The parish picnic was a splashin' success in August.

LITTLE FLOWER CHRISTMAS CHOIR!

Preparations for Little Flower Christmas Choir are right around the corner. Every year, our adult choir welcomes in adults from inside and outside the parish who may not want to commit to the choir on a year-round basis. We also welcome parish children in grades 6 and above who wish to join. As always seems to be the case, we anticipate a greater need for male voices!

The Christmas Choir rehearses on the five Tuesdays prior to Christmas at 7 p.m. beginning on Tuesday, November 19th. The choir will then sing at the 10 p.m. Mass on Christmas Eve and the 9:30 a.m. Masses on Sunday, December 29th and Sunday, January 5th.

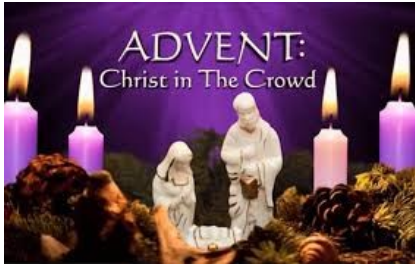

Members are asked to commit to four of the five practices and are also asked to commit to two of the three Masses at which the Christmas Choir sings unless special circumstances exist and arrangements are made in advance. Special arrangements will be made for returning college students.

Questions should be directed to Tom Costello at tcostello@littleflowerparish.org. Please consider being a part of this special tradition! This year, if you plan to join, please email Tom as soon as possible so that we can have enough music ready for everyone!

Little Flower Catholic School Annual Fund

In November the Annual Fund for Little Flower Catholic School was launched. We are hopeful that many alumni, parishioners, school parents, grandparents, and friends will recognize the value of a Little Flower education with a gift to the Annual Fund. An Annual Fund is essential to the operation of Little Flower School. It helps with the costs of sustaining programs and improving facilities that are not covered by tuition. A successful Annual Fund is key to our continued sustainability.

Little Flower Parish and School have played an important role in the lives of thousands of students. We want to continue to provide a valuable experience for the students of today and tomorrow. In order to do this, we need your help. Whether you are a first-time donor or a long-time benefactor, your assistance will make a positive impact on our students. We hope you will consider a gift to the Annual Fund.

The Baby Hope Tree

It was Dec. 21. The phone rang. The only other couple in our adoption group who hadn't yet been placed with a baby — besides us — was calling to say they finally had a child. I hung up, feeling like I'd been shot in the chest. No baby for us. We'd been waiting for almost five years, and I longed to be a mother.

I rolled up my spiritual sleeves and began to beg God for a baby by Christmas. I set up a Christmas tree and decorated the branches with pink and blue ribbons and christened it the "Baby Hope Tree." Every day I knelt there, pouring out my prayers.

Then the phone rang, and I heard the hard truth that there was not going to be a baby by Christmas.

Our first child didn't come until Easter. At last. Our second child came two years later in a blistering July summer.

When I look back at that 21st day of December, I realize now that my daughter was safely growing in her birth-mother's womb on Christmas Day. God was indeed answering my prayer. He was working while I was waiting.

Every Christmas since then, we've continued to set up a Baby Hope Tree, tied with pink and blue ribbons. In the early years, my husband and I did the work while telling our children the tale of our waiting and wanting them so much. As they grew, they began to set up the tree themselves, Eva tying on the pink ribbons and Ethan the blue ones. Well into their 20s today, they still come by and admire the tree, the tender reminder that God works while we wait.

Our goal is to bring folks together. Non-parishioners are certainly welcome to join us. Hope to see you all at some of our events!

TEACH THE CHILDREN — A Christmas Story

Late one Christmas Eve, I sank back, tired, but content, into my easy chair. The kids were in bed, the gifts were wrapped, the milk and cookies waited by the fireplace for Santa. As I sat back admiring the tree with its decorations, I couldn't help feeling that something important was missing. It wasn't long before the tiny twinkling tree lights lulled me to sleep. I don't know how long I slept, but all of a sudden I knew that I wasn't alone. I opened my eyes, and you can imagine my surprise when I saw Santa Claus, himself, standing next to my Christmas tree.

He was dressed all in fur from his head to his foot just as the poem described him, but he was not the "jolly old elf" of Christmas legend. The man who stood before me looked sad and disappointed. And there were tears in his eyes. "Santa, what's wrong?" I asked, "Why are you crying?" "It's the children," Santa replied sadly. "But Santa, the children love you," I said. "Oh, I know they love me, and they love the gifts I bring them," Santa said, "but the children of today seem to have somehow missed out on the true spirit of Christmas. It's not their fault. It's just that the adults, many of them not having been taught themselves, have forgotten to teach the children." "Teach them what?" I asked. Santa's kind old face became soft, more gentle. His eyes began to shine with something more than tears. He spoke softly. "Teach the children the true meaning of Christmas. Teach them that the part of Christmas we can see, hear, and touch is much more than meets the eye. Teach them the symbolism behind the customs and traditions of Christmas which we now observe. Teach them what it is they truly represent." Santa reached into his bag and pulled out a tiny Christmas tree and set it on my mantle.

"Teach them about the Christmas tree. Green is the second color of Christmas. The stately evergreen, with its unchanging color, represents the hope of eternal life in Jesus. Its needles point heavenward as a reminder that mankind's thoughts should turn heavenward as well." Santa reached into his bag again and pulled out a shiny star and placed it at the top of the small tree. "The star was the heavenly sign of promise. God promised a Savior for the world and the star was the sign of the fulfillment of that promise on the night that Jesus Christ was born. Teach the children that God always fulfills His promises, and that wise men still seek Him." "Red," said Santa, "is the first color of Christmas." "He pulled forth a red ornament for the tiny tree. Red is deep, intense, vivid. It is the color of the life-giving blood that flows through our veins. It is the symbol of God's greatest gift. Teach the children that Christ gave his life and shed his blood for them that they might have eternal life. When they see the color red, it should remind them of that most wonderful gift."

Santa found a silver bell in his pack and placed it on the tree. "Just as lost sheep are guided to safety by the sound of the bell, it continues to ring today for all to be guided to the fold. Teach the children to follow the true Shepherd, who gave His life for the sheep." Santa placed a candle on the mantle and lit it. The soft glow from its one tiny flame brightened the room. "The glow of the candle represents how people can show their thanks for the gift of God's son that Christmas Eve long ago. Teach the children to follow in Christ's footsteps...to go about doing good. Teach them to let their light shine before people that all may see it and glorify God. This is what's symbolized when the twinkle lights shine on the tree like hundreds of bright shining lights, each of them representing one of God's precious children's light shining for all to see."

Again Santa reached into his bag and this time he brought forth a tiny red and white striped cane. As he hung it on the tree he spoke softly. "The candy cane is a stick of hard white candy. White to symbolize the virgin birth and sinless nature of Jesus, and hard to symbolize the Solid Rock, the foundation of the church, and the firmness of God's promises. The candy cane form's a "J" to represent the precious name of Jesus, who came to earth. It also represents the Good Shepherd's crook, which He uses to reach down into all ditches of the world to lift out the fallen lambs who, like all sheep, have gone astray. The original candy cane had three small red stripes, which are the stripes of the scourging Jesus received by which we are healed, and a large red stripe that represents the shed blood of Jesus, so that we can have the promise of eternal life. Teach these things to the children."

Santa brought out a beautiful wreath made of fresh, fragrant greenery tied with a bright red bow. "The bow reminds us of the bond of perfection, which is love. The wreath embodies all the good things about Christmas for those with eyes to see and hearts to understand. It contains the colors of red and green and the heaven-turned needles of the evergreen. The bow tells the story of good will towards all and its color reminds us of Christ's sacrifice. Even its very shape is symbolic, representing eternity and the eternal nature of Christ's love. It is a circle, without beginning and without end. These are the things you must teach the children." I asked, "But where does that leave you Santa?" The tears gone now from his eyes, a smile broke over Santa's face. "Why bless you, my dear," he laughed, "I'm only a symbol myself. I represent the spirit of family fun and the joy of giving and receiving. If the children are taught these other things, there is no danger that I'll ever be forgotten." "I think I'm beginning to understand." "That's why I came," said Santa. "You're an adult. If you don't teach the children these things, then who will?"

Cleanliness is Truly Next to Godliness

Did you ever wonder how our beautiful church stays clean? With the help of many, many, volunteer hands of course! Your hands would be welcome and much appreciated!.

The church cleaners are a dedicated group of men and women who work diligently to maintain the cleanliness of the Lord's house. Ours is not a glamorous job, but is very worthwhile when you step into a bathroom with stocked toilet paper, or look through a window without fingerprints. If you notice that the garbage pails are always ready to receive your trash or a pew that isn't covered in cheerios, you know a church cleaner was there.

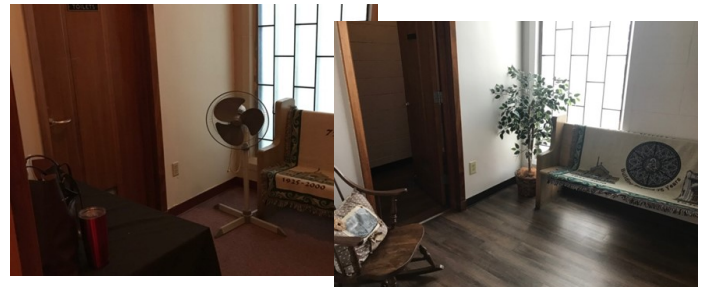

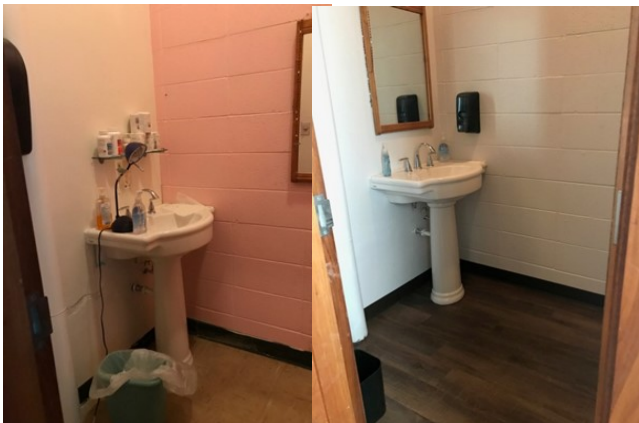

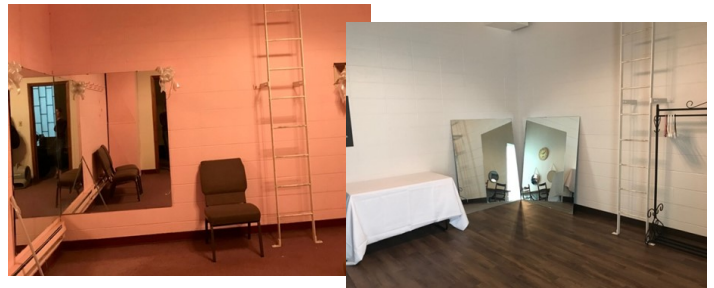

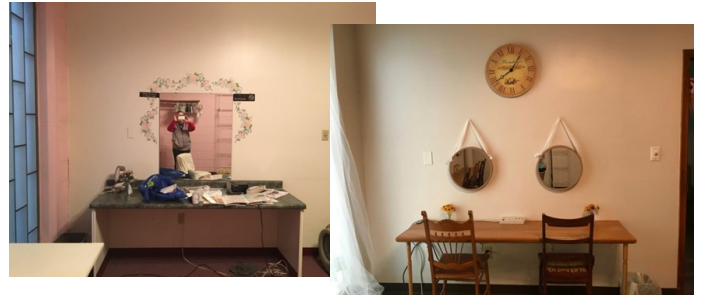

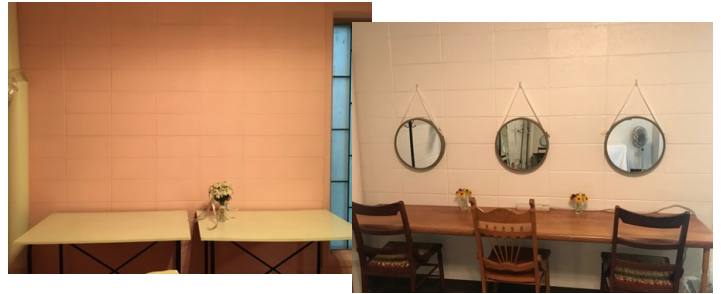

Our teams clean the church and bathrooms once a week. It's about three hours of work in a quiet, beautiful, space. Currently, each team cleans once every seven weeks.

Some team members are young and some are young at heart, but we all have a commitment to this continual ministry. We have tasks for every skill level. Might you consider sharing your time and talent with us?

A sincere and heart felt thank you goes out to each and every church cleaner for their continual dedication to this ministry. We couldn't do it without you!

Bride's Room Remodel

Did you know we have a Bride's Room in the church? It is located upstairs, just beyond the choir loft. A group of parishioners decided the Bride's Room was badly in need of an update, so they took on the task of remodeling it, along with the small foyer outside the room and the adjacent bathroom. The families of Dan and Joanne Mages, Daun and Scott Sidor, Frank and Angie Mackell, Steve and Amy Clegg, Chris and Andrea Johnson, and Rick and Michelle Fischer (along with painting assistance from Julia and Mya White) are responsible for turning the outdated "Pepto-Bismol pink" room into a space in which a bridal party would be happy to gather to prepare for the happy day. The carpet was removed and new flooring was installed, counters were crafted from old Little Flower church pews, and mirrors, chairs, and a clothing rack were added, among other minor improvements. The group still has some additional finishing touches to add, but as you can see by the pictures, so far it is a big improvement! (Note: left-side picture of each pair of pictures is before the remodel and right-side picture is after the remodel.)
