BULLETIN DEADLINE

Articles for the bulletin must be submitted in writing to the Parish center or by email to lgibbons@littleflowerparish.org by noon on Monday.

Dear Parish Family,

This Sunday at the 9:30 a.m. Mass, we will celebrate the Rite of Illumination with the second graders making their First Eucharist this spring. The children have been learning about how we celebrate as a family and as God's people. This rite reinforces their baptism and reminds them that as Christians we are especially happy because we know that Jesus is present with us when we come together to celebrate. They will receive a lit candle from their parents as a reminder of the light of Christ living within them and their call to be lights to the world. Please pray for these families during this preparation time.

I want to extend special thanks to Mark and Tracy Erdosy who shared their stewardship story at all the Masses last weekend. I found their story inspiring. One line really struck me: "Practically speaking, we need to support the Church because we can't imagine life without the Church and without our Catholic faith."

Also, thanks to all who returned their completed stewardship cards this week. If you have not returned yours, please return it as soon as possible either through the collection or through the mail or by dropping it off at the parish office.

Special thanks to our 8th Grade Class who hosted our Senior Prom on Saturday, February 8. The theme was "Dancing Through the Decades." Highlights of the evening were the delicious dinner prepared by Don Nevins, the crowning of Prom King Morris Miller and Prom Queen Judy Nichols, and Bingo. Thanks also to Theresa Slaton, our 8th Grade home room teacher, Peggy Clegg, and the parents who helped with setting up and tearing down. The 8th graders were here not only on Saturday evening but also on Saturday morning to set up.

After more than 20 years as Chairperson of the Art and Environment Commission, Mary Martha Costello is stepping down. Our church is always beautiful, but it is never more beautiful than at Christmas and Easter. If you might be interested in assuming this role, please check out the job description elsewhere in The Theresean.

Also, our Adult Choir has a great need for men's voices. Again, please check out the announcement elsewhere in this Theresean.

Have a wonderful week.

SPIRITUAL ADOPTION Week Two

Thanks for adopting me. I look forward to sharing my story with you. Here is how I started. As an egg from Mom's ovary starts down the Fallopian tube to the uterus, it was fertilized by one of 250 million sperm. Within 30 hours the nucleus of the egg and that of the sperm combine their genetic material. At that time, it is already determined that I am a girl. The cells divide over and over again, and I became a zygote and implanted in Mom's uterus. As little ball of cells that's officially referred to by scientists as a blastocyst. I have an inner cell mass that is becoming the embryo itself, a fluid-filled cavity that is becoming the amniotic sac, and an outer cell mass that is becoming the placenta, the pancake-shaped organ that delivers life-sustaining oxygen and nutrients to me and carries away my waste products. I have started my great adventure that may last for 100 years on earth.

Our next session meets Sunday, Feb. 23 after the 6 p.m. Mass, in the parish center. We will discuss chapter 4, "The Prayer Process," p.85-109. Please work the crossword puzzle on page 109.

WE NEED SVDV Truck Drivers and Helpers on Saturday, February 29, 2020 from 7:45 a.m. - 2 p.m.: The Saturday morning donation pick-ups are critical, as we cannot assist those in need in our community nor have enough merchandise to supply our Mission 27 Resale Store, if we do not get our trucks out. Go to <http://www.signupgenius.com/go/508084da5a628a0fa7-saturday> to establish a username/password and to sign-up; or call Chris Arvin at 317-270-2930 if you need help signing up or have questions.
