BULLETIN DEADLINE

Articles for the bulletin must be submitted in writing to the Parish center or by email to lgibbons@littleflowerparish.org by noon on Monday.

Dear Parish Family,

This weekend we are celebrating the Feast of St. Therese. Her actual feast day is October 1. This is the third date for her feast. Her feast was originally on September 30, the anniversary of her death in 1897. From 1927 to 1969, her feast day was on October 3. One of the reasons for this date was because October 1 was not available because of the then current liturgical calendar. One website suggested that it was moved to October 1 because of an ancient custom of celebrating a saint's entry into heaven on the day following her death.

As you can see, construction to make the parish center handicapped accessible has begun. You may remember that this project was completely funded by Phil and Betty Caito who generously provided for Little Flower in their estate planning. Betty was very much in favor of using their initial gift for this project. During construction, the only accessible door to the parish center will be the north door (Door 11). We apologize for any inconvenience caused by the construction.

Religious Ed for children in kindergarten through 8th grade who attend public schools will begin Sunday, October 25, from 10:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. We will meet in person on most Sundays through mid-April.

I have previously mentioned the importance of formal religious education for children. During second grade, children celebrate the sacraments of Eucharist and Reconciliation. First Communion is one of the highlights in the faith life of children. However, it is imperative that they be well prepared to receive these sacraments. Although specific sacramental preparation takes place during second grade, we do not believe that they can be adequately prepared during second grade if they have not had formal religious education in first grade.

Therefore, a child will be expected to have attended religious education for two years (first and second grade) before receiving First Eucharist and Reconciliation. If you have any questions or concerns about this or to register, please contact Lisa Gibbons, our director of sacramental preparation.

I am happy to report that Little Flower was able to purchase four AEDs (Automated External Defibrillators) through an Archdiocesan Home Mission Grant. There is one in the church, one in the gym, one in the cafeteria, and one in the Parish Center. Part of the money given to us from this grant is to be used for CPR/AED training. There will be a training session on Saturday, October 24. Please see more information elsewhere in the bulletin. I would like to encourage anyone who is a hospitality minister or involved with athletics as a coach or volunteer to take advantage of this free class.

On a less happy note, Little Flower School had its first positive COVID test this week. Through discussion with the Marion County Health Department, it was determined that one class would quarantine at home for 14 days. During that time, the teacher will do distance learning with her class from her home. According to the MCHD, there is no reason at this time to quarantine any other students or staff. Also, our cleaning company has done a deep clean and sanitation with EnviroShield EnviroCleanse, an EPA-approved disinfectant, of the classroom and the restrooms.

This past Monday the Archdiocese has once again reminded us of the importance of face masks in church. It is the policy of the Archdiocese that parishioners wear masks in church where required by civil authorities. In addition, the Archdiocese noted that the use of face masks "may become increasingly important as greater numbers return to our worship spaces." If you attend Mass at Little Flower, please wear a face mask whenever you are in church.

October 4 is the feast of St. Francis of Assisi. St. Francis is one of the most popular Catholic saints. Because October 4 is a Sunday this year, we do not celebrate the feast. Please pray for the living and deceased Sisters of St. Francis from Oldenburg. Oldenburg Franciscans staffed Little Flower School from its beginning until approximately 1990. When I was in school, we always had a free day on October 4. We celebrated our annual pet blessing on Saturday, October 3.

Wednesday, October 7, is the Memorial of Our Lady of the Rosary. The Rosary is one of the principal devotions to the Blessed Virgin Mary. When those of us who are older were growing up, there were three sets of mysteries: the Joyful, Sorrowful, and Glorious Mysteries. St. Pope John Paul II added the Luminous Mysteries: the Baptism in the Jordan, the Wedding at Cana, the Proclamation of the Kingdom, the Transfiguration, and the Institution of the Eucharist.

Have a wonderful week.

fr. Bob

Dear Friends in Christ,
On behalf of the entire Moriarty family, we wish to extend our gracious thanks to you for remembering us at the time of our father's death. Whether you did so with having a Mass said, participating in the visitation and funeral, donating to Bishop Simon Brute College Seminary or sending flowers, we are most grateful. Dad lived a long, full, beautiful life and we are grateful for his fatherly presence to us and to so many others. Dad taught us much about God the father in heaven by the way he (dad) loved here on earth. Be assured of our prayers for all of you who are dad's extended family and friends, and once again, thank you for remembering us. Dad (Pat) is in our hearts forever!

Peace to you, and all good things.

The kids of Little Flower's Cub Scout Pack 126 are excited to get back to scouting this fall. Like everything, there will be some changes in how we deliver the program. All events this fall will be held outdoors to encourage safe distancing. We will focus on outdoor activities like hiking in various parks around the area. The Pack will meet for regular meetings every other Tuesday at 6 PM, weather permitting. Pack 126 has been proud to operate out of Little Flower Parish for over sixty years. We have seen a number of changes in our community in that time. Scouts are now for any boys and girls between Kindergarten and 5th grade. We welcome any children in the area who are looking to be a part of the Pack. We encourage parental involvement although it isn't required above second grade. For more information see our new website, <https://lfscouts126.org/>, or follow us on Facebook @LFPack126 for updates. And look for popcorn sales coming soon!

Watch next weekend's bulletin for your opportunity to help feed a family in need for Thanksgiving.

In order to keep all of our senior parishioners safe and healthy, the Adventuresome Group will NOT meet in October. Hopefully we will be able to meet in November or December!

JUST TO LET YOU KNOW

Little Flower received an Archdiocesan Home Mission grant for four AEDs to use in our buildings. Part of the grant money includes training parishioners on how to do CPR and use the AEDs. The training class usually costs $45.00, but we are able to offer it free with money received from the grant. The class will be on Saturday, October 24, from 9:00 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. in the cafeteria. It is highly recommended that any Hospitality Ministers or anyone involved in athletics as coaches or volunteers take advantage of this free class. You never know when you might be called upon to help save someone's life. Class size is limited, so if you want to attend, please contact Jeannie Zimmerman at jjzimmerman@littleflowerparish.org or 317-357-8352 x 103 ASAP. Registration deadline is October 15.

There will be a prayer service at Holy Spirit Catholic Church on Tuesday, October 13, at 7 p.m. The special intention is for Msgr. Paul Koetter's healing.

Civil Dialogue: A response to Jesus' call to love our neighbor

Jesus uses the parable of the Good Samaritan to answer a question that is both searing and simple: "Who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10: 29). Our familiarity with this parable makes it easy for us now to identify as "neighbor" those on the margins of our society such as those experiencing homelessness or poverty. But how often do we see our neighbor in the person who disagrees with us?

As Catholics, our strong tradition of social teaching compels us to be actively engaged in the building up of our communities. This is achieved by being involved in the political process—and yet today, many shy away from such involvement because our national and local conversations are filled with vitriol and harsh language, often directed at people themselves. When personal attacks replace honest debate, no one wins. This kind of attack, no matter the reason, only serves to further divide our communities.

What is needed is good, honest, civil dialogue. This means that we must treat everyone as worthy of being at the table, worthy of our respect, and worthy of being heard. In short, it means treating everyone as our neighbor.

We undermine our commitment to human life and dignity when we fail to see the dignity of those who have a different viewpoint. We must detach from the bitterness that surrounds us and seek a better path. A commitment to civil dialogue can help us make real and authentic human connections, which breaks down the barriers that divide us.

Engaging in civil dialogue can help our faith communities create a new space to model love for our neighbors and respect for the dignity of all.

Tips for Engaging in Civil Dialogue:

1. Listen first and seek to understand the whole picture.
2. Ask questions for clarification.
3. Use 'I' statements; pay attention to body language.
4. Listen to what feelings are present and pay attention to how you respond.
5. Summarize what you've heard and ask for feedback.

Civil dialogue can best be defined as the ability to enter meaningful conversation with people whose viewpoints may be different from our own, who have a different background or experiences, or who come to a different conclusion about the best way to promote the common good. We enter into civil dialogue because we want to build a community that is rooted in understanding one another. God's love for each person requires us to remember that someone who disagrees with us is still a beloved child of God who deserves our love, respect, and care.

An important ingredient to civil dialogue is commitment to the truth. While respecting the dignity of all, we acknowledge that not all viewpoints are equally valid. We have the responsibility to speak truth with love. In addition, all who exercise their freedom of speech have an obligation to ensure that they come to conclusions based on data from credible and reputable sources, and that care is taken to avoid seeking the truth selectively, that is, only when it is convenient to us.

Civil dialogue is different than remaining silent in the face of disagreement. Listening to opposing views is a part of seeking clarity and can be a creative process. In civil dialogue, all are invited to bring and share their values, beliefs, and questions. We seek first to understand how our views on a topic are different and why. We ask questions to be sure we understand one another. In thinking critically about how we arrived at our own view points and listening to the experiences of others, we can sometimes arrive at new understanding and even find common ground.

Pope Francis has remarked, "Dialogue allows people to know and understand one another's needs. Above all, it is a sign of great respect, because it puts the person into a stance of listening, and into a condition of being receptive to the speaker's best viewpoints. Secondly, dialogue is an expression of charity because, while not ignoring differences, it can help us investigate and share the common good. Moreover, dialogue invites us to place ourselves before the other, seeing him or her as a gift of God, and as someone who calls upon us and asks to be acknowledged."¹

Just like any authentic human connection, the process of dialogue is complicated, often uncomfortable, and requires vulnerability and trust. We must rely on our faith in Christ who taught us that everyone is truly our neighbor. Promoting civil discourse is one way we can put this teaching into action.

Interested in learning more about civil dialogue or about how your community can engage in civil dialogue more often? Join USCCB's Civilize It Campaign to help promote dignity beyond the debate. A version of this campaign was first implemented by the Archdiocese of Cincinnati and is a call for all people to civilize our conversations. Visit civilizeit.org for more information, to take the pledge, or plan an opportunity for civil dialogue in your community.

If you are part of a group looking to create an opportunity for civil dialogue in your community, it may be helpful to consider these questions:

1. Is our intention to facilitate greater understanding, or merely win a debate?
2. Whose voices are we including? Whose are missing? Who else should be invited to the conversation?
3. How can we remember our shared human dignity and deescalate the situation when we feel ourselves become tense?
4. What guidelines could the group set together that will keep the conversation centered on dialogue instead of debate, and honor the dignity of all people present?
