FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Dear Parish Family,

Today we celebrate the Fourth Sunday of Lent, the mid-point of Lent. The Fourth Sunday of Lent was traditionally called Laetare Sunday. Laetare is a Latin word that means rejoice. Therefore, priests are invited to wear rose vestments. This might be a good day to review for ourselves how we are doing keeping our Lenten promises.

This weekend at the Sunday 9:30 a.m. Mass we celebrate the Second Scrutiny with our Elect, our former Catechumens, Our Candidates, and our Confirmandi. At the First Scrutiny, the former catechumens were anointed with the Oil of Catechumens, and all the Elect are presented with the Ten Commandments. During the Second Scrutiny, all the Elect receive the Nicene Creed.

Holy Week, the holiest week of the year for Catholics, is only two weeks away. Please note the Holy Week schedule elsewhere in The Theresean.

Friday, April 1, is the 52nd anniversary of the death of Fr. John Reidy who was an associate pastor at Little Flower from December 15, 1960 to April 1961. I was in 6th grade at the time. In fact, I think I served his first weekday Mass at Little Flower during my first week as a server. Although Fr. Reidy was only here a short time, he had a significant impact on me.

After last Saturday 5:00 p.m. Mass, a married couple who were visiting from Dayton told me how much they enjoyed the Liturgy and how beautiful our church is. We then talked briefly about my homily. They gave me a little different insight into why some people have not returned to Mass since the pandemic. Because of the pandemic lockdowns, people have become very comfortable with staying home and living in bubbles. For example, many workers who have worked from home no longer want to return to work outside the home. Likewise, restaurants are seeing more carry out orders. A few weeks ago, I wrote that all of us have been affected by the pandemic more than we realize. I think one of the effects is that many people no longer feel the need or desire for flesh and blood togetherness and community. What do you think?

Have a wonderful week!

fr. Bob

ATTENTION ALL EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS

All Eucharistic Ministers who serve the parish at Mass or take communion to those who are homebound or in the hospital will be commissioned/re-commissioned at Mass on Holy Thursday. Mass will be at 7:00 p.m. on Thursday, April 14. Please plan to attend.
