BULLETIN DEADLINE

Articles for the bulletin must be submitted in writing to the Parish center or by email to lgibbons@littleflowerparish.org by noon on Monday.

Dear Parish Family,

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. Today we celebrate our faith in three Persons in one God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

This Monday, June 13, is the fifth anniversary of the appointment of Archbishop Thompson as Archbishop of Indianapolis. Please include him in your prayers in a special way on Monday.

Next Sunday, June 19, the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, marks the beginning of a three-year Eucharistic Revival throughout the United States. Information concerning the opening celebration in the Archdiocese of Indianapolis can be found in the announcement immediately following my letter or at <https://eucharisticrevivalindy.org/festival>.

I would encourage as many of you as possible to participate in one or more parts of this celebration. There will be two Masses celebrated by the Archbishop. The 1 p.m. Mass will be primarily in English; the 3:00 p.m. Mass will be primarily in Spanish. There is a free luncheon and service project. There will be a Eucharistic procession from Sts. Peter and Paul Cathedral to St. John's ending with a Holy Hour and Benediction.

SUMMERFEST 2022 was wonderful!!! For the fifth festival in a row, we were blessed with perfect weather. We can only be grateful to God for the beautiful weather. We thank those who prayed for good weather.

Every year as SUMMERFEST approaches, so many people become involved: festival volunteers, parishioners selling raffle tickets, and parishioners coming to the festival and encouraging others to come. I am always amazed by the number of volunteers who are here throughout the entire festival, often volunteering in various capacities. In addition, some of these were the same people who worked hard both on set-up and take-down. SUMMERFEST benefits the parish not only financially but also builds community within the parish and brings the larger community together.

We also have to be grateful to all our sponsors and to all those who donate goods and services for the Silent Auction, especially our friends at the Steer-In for providing the fried chicken dinner Saturday evening. The Silent Auction committee began their work in January. Once again this year I heard many positive compliments about the musical entertainment throughout the festival.

Likewise, a successful festival requires a strong Festival Committee. Special thanks go to the Festival Committee. Their advance work contributes greatly to the success of the festival.

Also, during SUMMERFEST, all the members of the Festival Committee play leadership rolls. Special thanks to them.

Special thanks to Angie Mackell. As Director of Stewardship and Administration, she had primary responsibility for the festival. Finally, we want to recognize Jeff and Katie Lyons who have played a festival leadership role for the past 18 years. They will soon be moving out of state. Thanks, Jeff and Katie. You will be missed.

Have a wonderful week!

fr. Bob
