Dear Parish Family,

This year's Little Flower Novena will begin this Wednesday, September 21, at 5:30 p.m. Each evening the novena will consist of the novena prayers, a reading, and a Communion Service. The novena will be held Wednesday through Friday, September 21-23, and Monday through Friday, September 26 to September 30. The Solemn Closing of the novena will take place on at the 5:00 p.m. Mass on Saturday, October 1, the Feast of St. Therese.

The 1945 Jubilee Brochure described the first Little Flower Novena:

The first public novena in honor of the Little Flower came to a close on her feast, September 30, 1927. Crowds from all over the city participated in this novena, the average nightly attendance being about 700. Closing night, an estimated 1500 persons were present.

I invite and encourage you to attend and pray in thanksgiving for all God's blessings upon us, our families, and our parish.

Little Flower School will celebrate the Feast of St. Therese at the 9:30 a.m. Mass on Wednesday, September 28. Little Flower Parish will celebrate the Feast of St. Therese at all the Masses the weekend of October 1-2.

Thanks to Jeff Lyons, Scott Sidor, and Paul Clegg, who organized the Father Robert Borchertmeyer Golf Outing on Friday, September 9, at Pleasant Run Golf Course. We had a wonderful day, and the weather was outstanding. We had a record high 92 golfers this year! The winning team was comprised of Drew Torzewski, Matt Torzewski, Evan Thurber, and Matt Mabee. They shot a 48, which was 23 under par.

Thanks to all of our sponsors, those who donated prizes for our golfers, and Casey Kehrer and the Steer-In for providing lunch. The remainder of the golf committee consisted of Dan Mages, Rick Fischer, and Steve Clegg. Thanks to Frank Mackell for his help running errands prior to the outing. Thank you to the other volunteers who helped at the event: Angie Mackell, Joanne Mages, Caroline Mages, Katie Lyons, and Amy Clegg. Thanks to all who supported the golf outing.

Many of you continue to ask about my health. Last week I had my six-month follow-up visit with my urologist. I am doing fine. Thanks for your continued prayers.

Have a wonderful week.

fr. Bob

A Life-Changing Study for the Whole Parish!

Mercy

Sin always damages our relationships with God and with others, and depending upon the gravity of the sin, it may even rupture these relationships. Jesus calls us to the Sacrament of Reconciliation not only to forgive us and wash away our sins, but to heal our wounds and the root causes of our sins.

Our parish youth choir practices on one Sunday night per month, and sings at two Sunday evening Masses, on the first and fourth Sundays of the month. It is made up of youth in grades eight through twelve. We currently have 10 dedicated teens but really need to increase our numbers. This group requires a significant commitment on the part of students AND parents. I will be scheduling a practice on September 18, at 7 p.m. in church for interested youth. Please consider this opportunity. Parents please discuss this with your students who are eligible. These kids bring a significant vitality to our Sunday evening liturgy. Questions? Please contact Tom at tom@littleflowerparish.org

First Reconciliation & First Eucharist Program

Catholic families who have children entering 2nd grade are invited to a Parent Meeting on Thursday, September 22, at 6:15 p.m. in Duffey Hall (school café). At this meeting we will discuss the program and the commitments that are required. Children will make their First Reconciliation during Advent and First Communion will be Sunday, April 30, 2023.

Some Reviews of “FORGIVEN”:

“Absolutely so well done! All three episodes. I plan to share this and encourage others to tune in, especially my four millennials. Thank you for shedding a bright light on this most misunderstood sacrament of God’s infinite love and divine mercy. It brought me to tears and thanksgiving. God bless you all for your ministry.”

—Jeffrey, OR

“An excellent illustration of how we think and allow our minds to excuse sin and justify our behavior. Before we know it, we are far from God and truth. Thank you, God, for your perfect plan: the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Your wisdom, grace, love, and fount of mercy is amazing!”

—Kim, ND

“Being a Protestant until I was forty-two, going to confession has been a difficult obstacle for me. I’ve held on to my earlier mindset that I don’t have to go to a priest; I just go to God. Sadly, since converting seven years ago, the few times that I went to confession weren’t FULL confessions. Watching Forgiven has me desperately yearning to go meet Christ—not my priest. I need to hear Christ say “I absolve you.” Just as he spoke so lovingly to the adulterous woman, I need to hear: ‘Neither do I condemn you. Go and sin no more.’ Where am I? We are all in different places in our spiritual journey, but God made us all very good—and his mercy, grace, forgiveness, and love is ALWAYS within our reach!”

—Jan, AL

“So well done. This helped me understand my failures and my need to ask forgiveness, as well as how vital the Sacrament of Confession is to my mental health.”

—John, PA

“I was so touched by this! I have those fears when I go to confession that the priest knows who I am with all my faults, and it creates an anxiety; but after watching this video, I feel liberated and excited to confess my sins before God the Father.”

—Eddie, CA

“I am a frequent partaker of the Sacrament of Reconciliation, so I am familiar with this sacrament—but I needed to experience this program. Everyone does! What a beautifully presented message. I hope no one misses this!”

—Tricia, FL

“Forgiveness is a powerful weapon that we can use against Satan. We can do much to defeat the devil. Through the graces poured out in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, we disengage the grip Satan has on us and release control back to our Creator, the One who truly loves us.
