BULLETIN DEADLINE

Articles for the bulletin must be submitted in writing to the Parish center or by email to lgibbons@littleflowerparish.org by noon on Monday.

Dear Parish Family,

Thanks to the Invite Commission and the Parish Life Commission for hosting a welcome brunch for new parishioners last Sunday. Six new families attended. They were paired with parishioners who will be available to help them feel more welcome in the parish and help them become more active in the parish.

Today is World Mission Sunday. According to the United States Conference of American Bishops, "In 1926 Pope Pius XI instituted Mission Sunday for the whole Church with the first worldwide Mission Sunday collection taking place in October 1927." This year's theme is "You shall be my witnesses" (Acts 1:8). He reminds us that, "every Christian is called to be a missionary and witness to Christ. And the Church, the community of Christ's disciples, has no other mission than that of bringing the Gospel to the entire world by bearing witness to Christ. To evangelize is the very identity of the Church.... Dear brothers and sisters, I continue to dream of a completely missionary Church, and a new era of missionary activity among Christian communities."

Monday is the 78th Anniversary of the death of Fr. Thomas Scecina for whom Scecina Memorial High School is named. Fr. Scecina was born on September 16, 1910, in Vicksburg in Greene County, Indiana. After studies at St. Meinrad Seminary, he was ordained a priest of the Archdiocese of Indianapolis on June 11, 1935. Fr. Scecina served as a military chaplain in World War II. Captured by the Japanese, he was part of the Bataan Death March. In the Fall of 1944, the Japanese planned to transfer all the POWs to Japan to serve as slave laborers. He was on the ship Arisan Maru when it was torpedoed by an American submarine that did not know that the ship was a prisoner ship.

Scecina Memorial High School opened in 1953 with Fr. Harry Hoover as Principal. The school was staffed by Sisters of St. Francis from Oldenburg. The first class was composed of 128 freshman girls and 127 freshman boys. The first class, consisting of 219 seniors, graduated in 1957.

Wednesday I will have Mass at Scecina.

Friday is the Feast of Saints Simon and Jude, Apostles. Saint Simon is referred to as the Zealot or Canaanite. Some argue that he was called the Zealot because he belonged to an anti-Roman party. Others argue that he was called the Zealot because of his rigid adherence to Jewish Law. St. Jude, also called Thaddeus ("Courageous"), is the patron of those in despair or of hopeless cases. According to tradition, both were martyred in Persia. Please pray for the priests and parishioners of St. Simon and St. Jude parishes on Friday.

We are looking forward to our All-Class Reunion on Saturday, November 5. Please note the full-page announcement of this year's All-Class Reunion elsewhere in The Theresean. Besides the presentation of Outstanding Alumni awards, we will recognize 2022 anniversary classes. The All-Class Reunion will give us an opportunity to say thanks to you for your support, for you to reconnect with classmates and friends, and for us to honor outstanding alumni. If you are an alumnus or alumna, please sign up to come. Also, if your children are alumni, please encourage them to attend. Finally, there will be no confessions on November 5 because of the All-Class Reunion.

Have a wonderful week.

fr. Bob

Mass of Remembrance

Our annual Mass of Remembrance will be on Tuesday, November 1, at 6 p.m. During this special liturgy, we remember by name those members of the Little Flower community who have died in the past year. If you would like to have a candle lit in remembrance of someone not buried from here in the past year, please arrive by 5:50 p.m. and write their names on the list that will be available at each door.

CANDY NEEDED

Your help is needed in order to make the Halloween Bash a success. Donations of individually wrapped candy treats are

World Mission Sunday

October 23, 2022

The Church, therefore, is missionary by her very nature. She continues the mission of the Son and the mission of the Holy Spirit by proclaiming to the ends of the earth the salvation Christ offers those who believe in him. We are faithful to the nature of the Church to the degree that we love and sincerely promote her missionary activity. As teachers and pastors we are responsible for keeping alive a vibrant Catholic missionary spirit in the United States.

HELP FEED FAMILIES IN NEED THIS THANKSGIVING!

IT' AS EASY AS 1 - 2 - 3 !

1. On the weekend of October 29/30 pick up a reusable grocery bag (or two!) in the front of church. If you are not able to pick up a bag in church, they will be available in the parish office beginning October 31, from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. while supplies last. Inside the bag you will find a list of 10 grocery items.
2. Go to the store and purchase the 10 items. This is something families can do together as a good work to help the poor!
3. Return your filled bag to church on the weekend of November 12/13 or to the parish office no later than November 14.

Little Flower's St. Vincent de Paul volunteers will add a bread item and a grocery gift card to make the bag complete.
