BULLETIN DEADLINE

Articles for the bulletin must be submitted in writing to the Parish center or by email to lgibbons@littleflowerparish.org by noon on Monday.

Dear Parish Family,

This Monday, January 16, our nation celebrates the birth of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Both our parish office and our school will be closed in honor of Dr. King. I am always moved by Dr. King's words in his "I Have A Dream" speech delivered on the steps of the Lincoln Memorial on August 28, 1963: "I have a dream that my four children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin but by the content of their character." In that same speech, Dr. King reminded his listeners, "...unearned suffering is redemptive."

Tuesday begins the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity (January 18-25). January 25 was and is the Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul. The theme for 2023 is "Do good; seek justice" [Isaiah 1:17]. According to the National Conference of Catholic Bishops, "The theme, taken from the first chapter of the Book of Isaiah, reflects his concern for the oppressed who suffer from injustice and inequality fed by hypocrisy that leads to disunity." This theme was developed with the assistance of a group of Christians in Minnesota where George Floyd was murdered.

In early December, I included a short biography of two of our 2022 Outstanding Alumni. The third and final outstanding alumnus is Kurt Schnell from the Class of 1983.

Kurt is the youngest of Ralph and Wanda Schnell's six children, all of whom attended Little Flower Grade School. The family of eight lived in a small three bedroom house at 1710 N Colorado in a neighborhood where many Little Flower parishioners lived. He graduated from Seccina Memorial High School. Kurt and his wife, Patti, have two daughters, Cassie and Jessie. They also have two grandchildren by Cassie, Mason and Emma. Kurt began working in the tool and construction rental industry during his high school years and continued that line of work after graduating. He started his own successful business, K & R Tool Shed, in 2003.

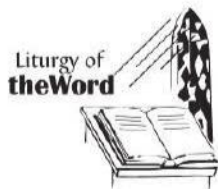

Kurt has remained steadfast in his loyalty to Little Flower. All throughout his adult life he has dedicated time and effort in volunteering wherever needed. For many years he has contributed to the success of the Little Flower Festival. He also ushers at Mass regularly. A few years ago he signed up for a Bible study with the Invite Commission and soon after was asked to help lead the studies. He is the Vice-Chairperson of the Parish Council and a member of the Executive Committee of the Parish Council.

One of his best memories from Little School was the support he felt in fourth grade when his father died unexpectedly. Mr. Bauerle brought the entire Cub Scout troop to the funeral. His teacher, Ms. Vicki Scherer, showed incredible love and support when he returned to school after the funeral. Although she now lives in Michigan, Kurt was able to locate her, and she and her husband, Keith Johnson, attended the All Class Reunion. According to Kurt, "The value of a Little Flower education reaches far and wide. In addition to learning the Catholic faith and service to others it helps create many lifelong friends." He believes Little Flower is a family.

For his loyalty, dedication, and generosity to Little Flower Parish, we honored Kurt Schnell as an outstanding alumnus of Little Flower Catholic School.

Have a wonderful week!

fr. Bob

Next weekend, January 21 and 22, there will be a second collection for the Church in Latin America. For many in Latin America and the Caribbean, a rising secular culture, difficult rural terrain and a shortage of ministers present obstacles to practicing the faith. Your support to the collection provides lay leadership training, catechesis, priestly and religious formation, and other programs to share our faith with those who long to hear the Good News of Christ. To learn more about how you can make a difference, please visit www.usccb.org/latin-america.

The next issue of the parish newsletter, "The Little Flower Garden" will be sent via email in mid-February. Any news or photos you have to share about Little Flower parishioners, ministries, or activities should be emailed to lfparishnews@yahoo.com by Thursday, January 26. You may also bring items to the parish office or drop in the collection basket.

The next Baptism Preparation Class is Monday, February 6 at 7:00 p.m. in the Parish Center.

This class is required for parents who are requesting baptism for their child and have not previously attended a preparation class. Please call the parish center at 317-357-8352 to let us know you plan to attend. Plan ahead, as the next class will not take place until April.

In a recent edition of the bulletin there was a mistake. It stated that Katie Tobin's mother, Denise Tobin, passed away. It was actually John Tobin's mother who passed away and Katie's mother-in-law. Also, Judy Corpuz's name was misspelled. Please accept our apology for this mistake.

Regular adult choir resumes with practice on Tuesday, January 17, at 7:00 P.M. in church. The adult choir sings at the 9:30 A.M. Mass on most Sundays, September through May. Practices are held on most Tuesday evenings from 7:00 P.M. until 8:30 P.M. We could use some new voices in all voice sections. If you have questions, e-mail Tom at tcostello@littleflowerparish.org.

A personal note of thanks to all members and instrumentalists of the Christmas choir. In the midst of an upsurge in various illnesses, they persisted! The results were outstanding! Very few parishes do Christmas like Little Flower!

Thanks to all, Tom
