BULLETIN DEADLINE

Articles for the bulletin must be submitted in writing to the Parish center or by email to lgibbons@littleflowerparish.org by noon on Monday.

Dear Parish Family,

Today is Palm Sunday, the beginning of Holy Week. Today we celebrate Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem.

Holy Week is the most sacred week of the church year. I want to encourage all of you to attend as many of the Holy Week services as possible. Please check the complete schedule elsewhere in the bulletin.

The Archdiocesan Chrism Mass will be Tuesday, April 4, at 2 p.m. at the Cathedral. Archbishop Thompson will bless the holy oils that will be used for the next year, and the priests of the Archdiocese will renew their commitment to the priesthood and priestly service in the Archdiocese.

Holy Thursday celebrates Jesus' Last Supper with his apostles at which he instituted the sacraments of Eucharist and Holy Orders and washed their feet. Our 7:00 p.m. Mass of the Lord's Supper includes the Presentation of the Oils, the Washing of the Feet, the Commissioning of Eucharistic Ministers, the transfer of the Eucharist to the altar of repossession, and the stripping of the altar and sanctuary. The Entrance Procession will include our Elect, our First Communion candidates, our Confirmation candidates, and our Eucharistic Ministers.

Our Holy Thursday Liturgy will be preceded by a Soup Supper in Duffey Hall at 5:30 p.m. and followed by Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament until 9:00 p.m. Adoration will conclude with Night Prayer at 9:00 p.m.

The Blessed Sacrament Chapel will be closed from before the Holy Thursday Liturgy until after the 10:30 a.m. Mass on Easter Sunday.

Good Friday commemorates Jesus' Passion and Death. Our 7:00 p.m. Celebration of the Lord's Passion will include the Liturgy of the Word, the Veneration of the Cross, and Holy Communion. There is no Mass on Good Friday. Living Stations of the Cross will be celebrated at 9:30 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. on Good Friday. Good Friday is a day of fast and abstinence.

On Holy Saturday, we will celebrate the Easter Vigil at 8:00 p.m. Our Liturgy will include the Service of Light with the blessing of the new fire and the Paschal Candle, the Liturgy of the Word, the Liturgy of Christian Initiation, and the Liturgy of the Eucharist.

At the Easter Vigil, four of our Elect, three adults and one 5th grade student, will be baptized, confirmed, and receive First Communion, and one adult will be received into the Church, confirmed, and receive First Communion. In addition, one already baptized Catholic adult will receive First Eucharist and be confirmed, and one 1st grade student will be baptized. The children attend Little Flower Catholic School.

Lenten promises should be kept until after the Easter Vigil!

The reason many people give for not attending these Liturgies is their length. Actually, neither the Holy Thursday nor the Good Friday Liturgy takes more than 1 hour and 15 minutes. The Holy Saturday Liturgy lasts approximately 2 hours.

Easter Sunday Masses will be at 8:30 and 10:30 a.m. There will be NO 6:00 p.m. Mass. There is NO 5:00 p.m. Mass on Holy Saturday. Also, there will be NO confessions on Holy Saturday.

For those who are physically unable to attend, Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and the Easter Sunday 10:30 a.m. Mass will be live streamed.

The parish office and Little Flower Catholic School will be closed on Monday, April 10.

As Lent concludes, special thanks to the Men's Club, especially Drew Torzewski, for continuing to host the Fish Frys and thanks to all the regular volunteers, all the weekly volunteers, all those who dined in or picked up dinner, and all those who invited and encouraged others to dine in or pick up dinner.

Finally, there is exciting news from Scecina Memorial High School:

Starting this spring and running through the fall of 2023, the Scecina Memorial High School campus will experience exciting, major construction and renovation of its athletic fields and the main entrance on Nowland Avenue. The new main entrance will include accessibility according to the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), visitor-friendly parking, and new landscaping and signage. The newly constructed athletic fields will be for Scecina's football, boys/girls soccer, baseball, lacrosse, track and field/cross country teams, and physical education classes. Scecina also wants its new facilities to be available to community partners including Little Flower Parish and Catholic Youth Organization activities. During the next several months, you will notice construction activity and equipment on the Scecina campus. For updates regarding the project, please visit www.scecina.org/construction. This webpage will include updates and space to share questions and/or comments. Scecina thanks you for your support and looks forward to Little Flower Parish and other community partners receiving the benefit of this project that is made possible by Scecina's recent capital campaign, Our Faith, Our Journey, Our Time.

Have a blessed Holy Week.

fr. Bob
