Dear Parish Family,

Today we celebrate the Feast of the Transfiguration of Jesus. The Gospel story of the Transfiguration is also always read on the Second Sunday of Lent. In 2002, Saint Pope John Paul II included the Transfiguration as one of the five Luminous Mysteries of the rosary.

Today is also the 45th anniversary of the death of Saint Pope Paul VI, who ordained Fr. Jim Farrell and me. I vividly remember his death. I was visiting my mother at the time, which I typically did on Sunday afternoons, and the Little Flower bells started tolling.

It was on August 6, 1945 that the United States dropped the first atomic bomb on the Japanese city of Hiroshima. With the current rise in nuclear tensions, please include world peace in your prayers today.

Little Flower School will open for in-person school on Wednesday, August 8. We want to welcome our administration, faculty, staff, students, and their families. In a special way, we want to welcome those who are new to our community, especially those who are coming from Holy Cross School.

Our new staff includes:

Mrs. Lillian Kelley	Kindergarten	Ms. Katie Niehaus	Fourth Grade
Ms. Elena Mendoza	Kindergarten	Mr. Elvis Netterville	Middle School Math
Mrs. Yvette Waterman	Kindergarten	Mr. Matt Arant	ELL
Mr. John Lilienkamp	Second Grade	Mrs. Regina Dew	Aide

Four of our staff from last year are assuming new roles this year: Ashley Guilfooy is moving from Kindergarten to 1st Grade. Mrs. Colleen Borgert, formerly Parent Involvement Educator, will teach Family and Consumer Sciences. Mrs. Meghan Reasner, formerly 1st grade and resource teacher, will be the K-3 Literacy Coach. Mrs. Nancy Herrman will become part of the Maintenance Staff.

Welcome to all of them and to all our returning administration, faculty, staff, and students and their families.

Tuesday is the feast of St. Dominic, the founder of the Order of Preachers or the Dominican Order. St. Thomas Aquinas was a Dominican friar.

Wednesday is the optional memorial of St. Teresa Benedicta of the Cross, a contemporary saint. Edith Stein was born in Germany in 1891 of Jewish parents. She converted to Catholicism in 1922 and became a Carmelite nun in 1923 with the name Sr. Teresa Benedicta of the Cross. In 1942, she was arrested, transported to Poland, and killed at Auschwitz.

Thursday is the Feast of St. Lawrence, Deacon and Martyr. He was martyred in 258. As a deacon, he cared for the temporal welfare of the Church of Rome. According to tradition, he was burned alive on a gridiron.

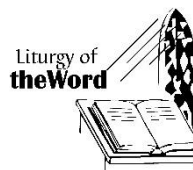

Friday is the memorial of St. Clare of Assisi. When I was in Rome, I was able to visit her tomb at Assisi where her body has remained preserved.

Have a wonderful week.

fr. Bob

What is RCIA?

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the process established for the universal Church for individuals to become Catholic and receive the sacraments of initiation-Baptism, Confirmation, and the Eucharist. This initiation process also involves the parish community experiencing a renewal in faith as it prepares and welcomes new members into the Church. The Rite speaks of conversion as a "spiritual journey." Centered on fostering a deep relationship with Jesus and the Church he founded, this journey takes place through distinct stages over a period of time suitable to bring about a thorough catechesis, significant experience of the parish community, and commitment to the liturgical and moral life of the Catholic faithful. The RCIA process is a restoration of the ancient catechumenate, arising within the first three centuries following the era of the apostles. It was the early Church's way of Christianizing the pagan Roman Empire. The Second Vatican Council called for the restoration and use of this venerable and powerful method of initiation for the worldwide Church.

Who is RCIA for?

- Persons in need of Baptism
- Persons baptized in another Christian tradition who desire to become Catholic.
- Persons baptized Catholic in need of First Communion and/or Confirmation.

How did a person become Catholic before RCIA?

At most parishes, the person was given individual instruction by the parish priest, or someone delegated by him.

Why the change?

There were a number of limitations to private instruction. The priest was the only member of the Catholic community with whom the inquirer had contact, apart from any supporting family and friends. Private instruction did not ensure that the inquirer had a lived experience of the Catholic faith, or was exposed to authentic Christian charity as lived in a parish community.
