BULLETIN DEADLINE

Articles for the bulletin must be submitted in writing to the Parish center or by email to lgibbons@littleflowerparish.org by noon on Monday.

Dear Parish Family,

Thanks to the Invite Commission and the Parish Life Commission for hosting a welcome brunch for new parishioners last Sunday. Three new families attended.

Today is World Mission Sunday. Pope Francis has chosen “Hearts on Fire, Feet on the Move” as the theme for this year’s World Mission Sunday. This theme comes from Jesus’ encounter with the two disciples on the Road to Emmaus. After Jesus vanished from their sight, “they said to each other, ‘Were not our hearts burning within us while he spoke to us on the way and opened the Scriptures to us?’” St. Therese and St. Francis Xavier are the patron saints of the missions.

On October 15, Pope Francis released as an Apostolic Exhortation “C’est La Confiance...On Confidence in the Merciful Love of God For the 150th Anniversary of the Birth of Saint Therese of the Child Jesus and the Holy Face.” It may be found in English at https://www.vatican.va/content/francesco/en/apost_exhortations/documents/20231015-santateresa-delbambinogesu.html. In §52, Pope Francis addresses her relevance to today’s world.

Tuesday I will be attending the semi-annual Priest/PLC meeting at Saint Joseph Catholic Church in Four Corners.

Tuesday is the 79th Anniversary of the death of Fr. Thomas Scecina for whom Scecina Memorial High School is named. Fr. Scecina served as a military chaplain in World War II. Captured by the Japanese, he was part of the Bataan Death March. In the fall of 1944, the Japanese planned to transfer all the POWs to Japan to serve as slave laborers. He was on the ship Arisan Maru when it was torpedoed by an American submarine that did not know that the ship was a prisoner ship. Scecina Memorial High School opened in 1953.

Saturday is the Feast of Saints Simon and Jude, Apostles. Saint Simon is referred to as the Zealot or Canaanite. Some argue that he was called the Zealot because he belonged to an anti-Roman party. Others argue that he was called the Zealot because of his rigid adherence to Jewish Law. St. Jude, also called Thaddeus (“Courageous”), is the patron of those in despair or of hopeless cases. According to tradition, both were martyred in Persia. Please pray for the priests and parishioners of St. Simon and St. Jude parishes on Saturday.

We are looking forward to our All-Class Reunion on Saturday, November 4. Please note the full-page announcement of this year’s All-Class Reunion elsewhere in The Theresean. Besides the presentation of Outstanding Alumni awards and the Bob Kiley Scholarship, we will recognize 2023 anniversary classes. The All-Class Reunion will give us an opportunity to say thanks to you for your support, for you to reconnect with classmates and friends, and for us to honor outstanding alumni. If you are an alumnus or alumna, please sign up to come. Also, if your children are alumni, please encourage them to attend.

Have a wonderful week.

fr. Bob

Saint Vincent DePaul 5th Sunday Collection

Members of the Society of Saint Vincent de Paul (SVDP) are called to journey toward holiness through serving Christ in the poor and one another. The Little Flower conference makes home visits to those who have requested financial assistance, furniture, appliances, household items, and other basic needs. Housing aid and utility assistance are also available.

The Little Flower official neighborhood is bounded roughly by Sherman Drive to I-70 to Arlington to 10th Street. From October 1, 2022 to July 17, 2023 our conference has helped 457 neighbors: 334 adults and 123 children. This is made possible by donations.

When a month has 5 Sundays (like October) a special envelope is available for donations to SVDP to be placed in the collection. For those that contribute electronically, that option is now available. Next Sunday is the fifth Sunday. Please prayerfully reflect on your ability to help in this service.

View this bulletin online at www.DiscoverMass.com

We extend our condolences to Eileen McFadden on the death of her brother, Dennis Fahey, who passed away on September 29 and whose funeral liturgy was celebrated here on October 16. Please keep all of Dennis’ family and friends in your thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. May God welcome Dennis into his eternal glory.

The next Baptism Preparation Class is Monday, November 13 at 7:00 p.m., in the Parish Center. This class is required for parents who are requesting baptism for their child and have not previously attended a preparation class. Please call the parish center at 317-357-8352 to let us know you plan to attend. Plan ahead as the next class will not take place until February.

HELP FEED FAMILIES IN NEED THIS THANKSGIVING!

IT'S AS EASY AS 1 - 2 - 3 !

1. On the weekend of October 28/29 pick up a reusable grocery bag (or two!) in the front of church. If you are not able to pick up a bag in church, they will be available in the parish office beginning October 30, from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m., while supplies last. Inside the bag you will find a list of ten grocery items.
2. Go to the store and purchase the ten items. This is something families can do together as a good work to help the poor!
3. Return your filled bag to church on the weekend of November 11/12, or to the parish office, no later than Monday, November 13.

Little Flower's St. Vincent de Paul volunteers will add a bread item and a grocery gift card to make the bag complete.

Thank you for your help as we serve the poor in our neighborhood.
